Acknowledgments

Beginning a career under the supervision of a person like Prof. Sipra Guha-Mukherjee is a very rare phenomenon. Her affectionate and understanding nature, besides academic brilliance, has rendered immense impact in my life and I take great pleasure to express my sincere thanks and gratitude to her.

I express my sincere gratitude and high regards to Prof. VS Chauhan, Director, ICGEB, New Delhi, for providing me an opportunity to work at ICGEB in his laboratory.

I am much thankful to Dr. P. Malhotra, whose sound knowledge, constant encouragement and patience with me has taught some never forgettable lessons, besides techniques, while executing experiments.

I wish to thank Prof. R. Prasad and Prof. KC Upadhaya, former deans of School of Life Sciences, and Prof. RK Saxena, present dean of the school for providing me the infrastructure and facilities for my research work.

Thanks to Prof. S Chatterjee, Prof. RNK Bamezai, Prof. RK Kale, Prof. PK Yadav and Prof. Aloke Bhattacharya, Dr. VS Reddy for their scientific co-operation they have extended to me at various points of time.

Thanks to Dr. Hugh Mason for providing me vector pIBT.201 and supported me with valuable scientific informations.

It is my good fortune for having been associated with seniors like Dr. Jayanti Sen, Dr. Neelam Sharma, Dr. Sanjeev Kalia, Dr. Neera Tiwari and junior like Semarjit Shary.

I am thankful to Manisha, Amita Joshi, Ritu, Dr. I.P. Singh, Mr. Negi and Aniruddha for their help in various ways.

I extend my warmest thanks to Dr. PV Lalitha, Dr. Gul and Dr. Asif in ICGEB for providing me support in every possible way.
Thanks to Dr. Sudip Chattopadhyay and Dr. Sabhyata Bhatia for being kind to me and providing me their support as and when required.

Individually I would like to thank Debesh-Ashima, Ashima Bharadwaj, Ritesh; Suraksha, Dasarathi, Kaushik, Susmit and all other members of Malaria group, ICGEB for their help.

It is my pleasure to acknowledge the help and support from Mr. Saini for photography, Mr. Alexander, Mr. Khan, Mr. Sharma and Mr. Mishra for the help in CIF and CPMB staffs, Mr. Sunil Sharma and Mr. MM Sharma.

My sincere thanks to Shyam Singh and Lokkhi for their constant help.

Thanks to all the staffs of SLS for their help in different aspects.

I would be failing my duty if I do not record my gratitude to Shamik Ghosh, a true friend in need and every aspect of my research period. Dr. Madhusudan Dey, Dr. Tapas Saha and Monideepa are the other three persons who made my entire JNU-life wonderful with care and constant encouragement.

The financial support provided by the UGC, New Delhi in the form of Junior research fellowship and Senior research fellowship is duly acknowledged.

I feel myself fortunate enough to be associated with Prof. Narayan Mukherjee who enlightened me with his brilliant insights.

On completion of this work, I cherish the affection and love of my parents, in-laws, my brothers, Dip and Sachin and thanks for their patience and understanding.

Lastly I owe much to Sangeeta for the pain she has taken to bear me and the amount of help she has rendered for the completion of this massive task.
