Part II
( Illustrations )

by

N. R. BANERJEE, M.A.
Superintendent
Archaeological Survey of India

UNIVERSITY OF CALCUTTA
1962
LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS
(Plates and Figures including maps)

Plates

I. Iron objects from Alamgirpur, District Meerut. (Courtesy Dr. Y.D. Sharma and the Archaeological Survey of India)

II. Flattish flask from Jiwanri, a cairn-burial site in Makran. (Courtesy Archaeological Survey of India)

III. Flattish flasks from Sialk, Iran. (Reproduced from Pl. XVIII in Fonilles de Sialk, Vol. II, by R. Ghirshman)

IV. Axe with iron blade and bronze grip from Ras Shamra. (Reproduced from Pl. in Ras Shamra Ugarit I, p. 102)

V. Furnaces for the forging of iron objects from Ujjain. (Courtesy Archaeological Survey of India)

VI. Wooden Reinforcement to mud-fortification in ancient Ujjain (Courtesy Archaeological Survey of India)

VII. An apsidal structure of dressed stones from Ujjain. (Courtesy Archaeological Survey of India)

Figures

1. Iron objects from the Painted Grey Ware and associated levels. (Reproduced from the Ancient India; Courtesy Archaeological Survey of India)

2. Iron objects from the Megaliths. (Reproduced from Ancient India, Courtesy Archaeological Survey of India)

3. Iron objects etc. from the Megaliths. (Reproduced from Ancient India and A. Rea's Prehistoric Antiquities from Adichanallur)

4. Iron objects from the cairn-burials in Moghul Ghundai, Pakistan. (Reproduced from M.A.S.I., no. 37, pl. XIX, Courtesy Archaeological Survey of India)

5. Map showing the distribution of the cairn-burials and the Londo Ware, Pakistan. (Reproduced from fig. 2 of Ancient India nos. 10 & 11, Courtesy Archaeological Survey of India)

7. The design of horsemen carved on a seal from Iran. (Reproduced from Stratigraphic Comparée by C.F. Schaeffer)

8. Map showing the distribution of the early cultures in India. (Reproduced from the Ancient India, no. 9; Courtesy Archaeological Survey of India)

9. Map showing the distribution of 'Copper hoards' and other bronze and copper objects in India. (Reproduced from Stratigraphic Comparée by C.F. Schaeffer)

10. The typological classification of tools and weapons in the copper hoards. (Reproduced from Ancient India, no. 7; Courtesy Archaeological Survey of India)

11. Miscellaneous Bronze and Copper objects to show the interconnections between West Asia and India. (Reproduced from Map, October, 1956, Vol. LVI)

12. Map showing the ancient sites of Iran and India. (Reproduced from Welt-historisches Atlas.)

13. Iron objects from Agha Evlar and Chagoulla Derré (Iran). (Reproduced from Stratigraphic Comparée etc. by Schaeffer.)

14. Iron objects from Sialk V, A and VI, B (Iran). (Reproduced from Stratigraphic Comparée etc.)

16. Iron Objects from the Northern Black Polished Ware levels. (Reproduced from the above mentioned works, Ancient India and Indian Archaeology)

17. Map showing the distribution of the more important iron ores in India. (Reproduced from M.S. Krishnan, Geological Survey of India, Bulletin no. 19, Iron Ores)
18. Map showing the distribution of the Painted Grey and the N.B.P. Wares.

19. The types of the Painted Grey Ware Ceramic (Reproduced from Early India and Pakistan by Wheeler)

20. The types of the Northern Black Polished Ware. (Reproduced from Ancient India, no. 9, 1933)