

GRATITUDE

In the first place I wish to express my indebtedness to my guide Dr. S Omana, for her constant encouragement and meticulous guidance during the preparation of the materials for the thesis.

I owe my gratitude to Adv. Prem Doss Swami Doss Yehudi, who has rendered valuable suggestions regarding Jewish Religion.

I am also grateful for the help provided by the staff members of the Kerala University Library, Theological Seminary Kannamoola, and the Asiatic Library, Bombay.

My thanks are due to Shri K Balachandran Nair, Department of English, S. N. College, Punalur, who took the trouble of going through the manuscript with meticulous care and offered his remarks.

I am grateful to Miss K Vijayalakshmi, who has helped me in getting my thesis prepared through word processing.

The credit of this work I share with all, and for the short coming, the responsibility I own.

Thiruvananthapuram,
24 - 4 - 1995.

Ragini S.