SELECT PHOTOGRAPHS
Benodelal Dasgupta
(Father of Pannalal Dasgupta)

Motilal Dasgupta
(Uncle of Pannalal Dasgupta)

Felicitation of Pannalal Dasgupta before his expulsion from Birbhum in 1939
Graduation Certificate of Pannalal Dasgupta

Picture of armed training in the Ruppur village in Birbhum in the period 1939-40 involving youth members of Samya Sadan with which Panna Lal Dasgupta was actively associated.
This Political Thesis was adopted at the Birbhum Conference of RCPI in 1948. It was published from Red Front Press, Calcutta in 1949. In it, Pannal Dasgupta, the then Secretary, Central Committee of RCPI spoke in favour of organising immediate action in opposition to the stance of Saumyendranath Tagore.
Dum Dum - Basirhat Action was planned by Pannalal Dasgupta. This is the news of the armed action published in Amrita Bazar Patrika on 27.02.49.
The news of Pannalal Dasgupta's life-imprisonment in Dum Dum Basirhat case reprinted in Dainik Basumati on 08.06.1990
Pannalal Dasgupta amidst party comrades and enthusiastic crowd after his release from prison in August, 1962.

Pannalal Dasgupta sitting in the middle of the front row with fellow comrades after release on amnesty in August, 1962.
The cover of the first issue of Compass magazine edited by Pannalal Dasgupta.

The pages depicting the list of content and the editorial written by Pannalal Dasgupta for the first issue of Compass.
A Cultural Programme organised by Pannal Dasgupta in University Institute Hall on 21 February, 1968

Cover of the Special issue of Compass Magazine on Pakistan

The cover of the book published after the National Seminar on Hill people of North Eastern India, held in Calcutta in December, 1966

Pannalal Dasgupta planting a sapling.
Pannalal Dasgupta receiving Rathindra award from Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi in Visva Bharati on 10th January 1987
Pannalal Dasgupta receiving Gandhi Appreciation Award in 1998 from Phulrenu Guha in a programme in Gandhi Museum, Barrackpore.

Obituary of Pannalal Dasgupta published in The Statesman (Left), in the Times of India (Right)