ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am highly indebted to Dr. (Mrs.) Shachi Chakrabarty, Reader, Faculty of Law, University of Calcutta, for providing me the privilege of having her valuable advice, assistance and suggestions as my Guide and Supervisor in course of my study and preparation of this research work, for which I tender my beholden regards and thankfulness.

I express my profound gratitude and sincere regards to the revered teacher and legal luminary Prof. (Dr.) Amit Sen, Hon’ble ex-Member, West Bengal Human Rights Commission and former Dean, Faculty of Law, University of Calcutta, for his kind approval and encouragement to take up this topic for research.

I express my extreme gratefulness and regards to Prof. (Dr.) Manik Chakrabarty, HOD, Department of Law, Burdwan University, for his kind suggestions and help with immense encouragement during the progress of this study.

I express my extreme gratefulness and humble regards to Prof. (Dr.) I. G. Ahmed, former Dean & HOD, Dr. S. S. Chatterjee, Dean and Dr. J. K. Das, HOD, along with others in the Faculty of Law, University of Calcutta for providing me valuable suggestions. I am also thankful to the staff of the University of Calcutta, for their kind co-operation in pursuing my study.

At the same time, I am grateful to Dr. Helen R. Sekar, Fellow & Co-ordinator, National Resource Centre on Child Labour, VVGNLI, Noida, Dr. Thomas Paul, Associate Research Professor, ILI, New Delhi, Prof. (Dr.) Sujit Kr. Das, HOD, Department of Psychiatry, North Bengal Medical College, Siliguri, Dr. Jeuti Baruah, former Director, Law Research Institute, Guwahati High Court, Prof. K. Deuti, former Principal, H.M. College, Kolkata, Sri Ista Prasad Brahma, Principal, Kokrajhar Law College & former District and Sessions’ Judge for their kind gesture for encouragement and inspiration.

Sincerely enough, I express my immense gratitude to the learned authors, scholars, esteemed institutions, whose works I have consulted and some valuable remarks of eminent personalities I have quoted and who have been listed in the bibliography of this study.
My thanks are also due to many officials and staff in the district units of Bodoland Territorial Areas District (BTAD) administration, for helping me in doing the empirical study, most particularly during field survey, in various localities.

Nonetheless, I am fortunate enough to receive the whole-hearted support from the librarians and staff of the Department of Law, University of Calcutta, ILI, New Delhi, National Resource Centre, VVGNLI, New Delhi, National Human Rights Commission, New Delhi, Indian Society of International Law, New Delhi, Offices of the ILO and the UNICEF, New Delhi, the American Centre, Kolkata, the British Library, Kolkata, the P.G. Department of Law, Gauhati University and Kokrajhar Law College, Assam, for which I extend my warmest appreciation and thanks to all of them for their persistent assistance and co-operation.

Most importantly, my special thanks goes to the beloved respondent working children in my study, people in the localities and some being involved in social activities, unforgottably Sri Sankar Kr. Dey, Sri Deepjyoti Bhattacharjee, Sri Sanju Dev Roy, Mr. Digambar Narzary among many others helping me at several odds during field survey with their unequivocal co-operation.

Here I will fail in my duty if I do not express my utmost regards to my parents and deep sense of gratitude with warm thanks to my wife Mrs. Jayita Aditya and my son Mr. Abhilash Aditya, relatives and well-wishers for their invisible encouragement and constant inspiration throughout my hard days of research work.

Last but not least, I would be failing in my duty, if I do not express my sincere thanks to M/S Dhar Brothers, Kolkata who has very kindly agreed to provide printed copies of this research work.
