ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This research work in the field of Environmental Law on the Topic — "Judicial Activism And Control of Environmental Pollution in India: A Socio-Legal Study" is my earnest effort since 2001 immediately after obtaining the degree of LL.M. to focus the activist role of Indian Judiciary in dispensing environmental justice and its impact upon the society from Socio-economic perspective along with its critical evaluation.

During my research, I had worked extensively in this particular field of Study.

In this regard, I am deeply indebted to Dr. I.G. Ahmed, Professor and Dean, Faculty of Law, University of Calcutta. His all worthy advice and suggestions had enlightened me like anything. Without his guidance and advice, I could not complete my present research work.

I am also grateful to all the teachers and professors of the Department of Law, University of Calcutta, who had also helped me lot with their valuable suggestions.

In this regard, I should not forget the co-operation and help as rendered by all the staffs of the library of the Department of Law, University of Calcutta.

I must acknowledge, my deep sense of gratitude to my respected father, Mr. Bhudeb Bhattacharyya, who is a Senior Advocate of Calcutta High Court. Without his precious advice and wholehearted encouragement, I could not complete this research work. I also extend my deep sense of gratitude to my mother Smt. Anjali Bhattacharyya, because without her support and inspiration, this work would have been unmanageable.

I convey my special thanks to Mr. Rajib Roy, who has rendered his all possible co-operation during preparation of this thesis by his able performance in computer typing. Lastly, I convey my thanks to my all friends and well wishers who had always rendered their help and support whenever it required.
