List of Tables

1. Contribution of informal sector workers to total workforce & total GDP for some African countries 31
2. Empl in unorganised non-agricultural enterprises by Economic Census 35
3. No of workers, enterprises in unorganised manufacturing as per NSS 37
4. % of urban main and marginal HH workers to total urban main and marginal 38
5. % of over representation of the unorganised sector over the informal sector 44
6. % of urban unorganised manufacturing units run perennially 50
7. Value of $c_t/c_k$ indicator for NIC industry classes 54
8. Average annual emoluments for each NDME hired worker 72
9. TFP Kendrick’s Indices for NIC classes (Normative scenario) 82
10. TFP Kendrick’s Indices for NIC classes (Actual scenario) 83
11. TFP Solow Indices for NIC classes (Normative scenario) 88
12. TFP Solow Indices for NIC classes (Actual scenario) 89
13. TFP Divisia Indices for NIC classes (Normative scenario) 91
14. Comparing the linear rate of growth of no. of ent (in %) with TFP trends 123

N. B. : A separate section of figures on Total Factor Productivity Trends in Indian Urban Unorganised Manufacturing units during 1984-85 to 2000-2001 has been attached after Table no. 13 in page no. 91.