ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Though words are seldom sufficient to express gratitude and feelings, it somehow gives me an opportunity to acknowledge those who helped me during the tenure of my study. The work of thesis preparation was a daunting task and a fascinating experience. This work is not the result of an individual effort, but is the product of collective wisdom and experience of all those who have shared their views far beyond those within the covers of this book.

I acknowledge the Almighty Adishakti Mata, my good shepherd, who has neverfailed me, who extended her helping hand whenever I was in need, who has led me miraculously, for giving me strength, courage, spirit, wisdom and resilience to work and to bring this endeavour to completion.

On the occasion of presenting this thesis, it is my privilege to express my deep sense of gratitude to my esteemed research guide Dr. Rajarajeshwari N. Assistant Professor, Dept. of Pharmacognosy, Visveswarapura Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Bangalore. For her constructive criticism, boundless enthusiasm, astounding dedication, affectionate and valuable guidance, encouragement and support have always propelled me to perform better. I am highly indebted to her for his valuable presence even in her busy schedule, which helped me to complete this work successfully. I am and I would remain grateful to her. Without her help, this thesis would not be as it is.

I am deeply indebted to Shri Ganesh S. Rao, Honourable Chairman of G.R. Education Trust®, Mangalore for providing such facilities and who inspired me to do this smart work and success of this work.

I am obliged to Dr. Narayana Swamy V.B., Principal, Karavali College of Pharmacy, Mangalore for providing excellent facilities, encouragement and support throughout the tenure of my study.

My profound immense thanks to all my colleagues for their help and encouragement during the course of this study.
I extend my profound respect and heartfelt gratitude to my beloved father Devendra Nayak, mother Rathnavathi Nayak, and also express my affection to my beloved sister Rashmi Nayak, my brother in law Ragavendra Kamath and my beloved niece Anvi R. Kamath for their constant love, support and encouragement throughout my life, without which it would not have been possible for me to complete this project today.

Loving thank to my dearest friends, students and seniors who supported me in all aspects.

I acknowledge the help and support of all lab attenders, and all other non teaching staffs of the college.

Last but not the least, timely and valuable help rendered by the Teaching, Non-Teaching & Supporting Staff of Karavali College of Pharmacy, Mangalore as well as JJT University, Jhunjhunu are duly acknowledged.

My Sincere Thanks to the management of Zydus Research Centre, Ahmadabad, for providing me the Gift samples of drug and excipients, without that this work would have not been possible.

I am grateful to Adishakti Mata for bringing in nice people in my life and giving me an opportunity to acknowledge their efforts.

Sincerely thanks to all.
