Acknowledgements

The researcher expresses her deep sense of gratitude to her teacher, Dr P. Roy, Reader in Geography, Calcutta University, for his valuable counsel, guidance and active encouragement to complete this thesis.

The researcher is indebted to Prof. M.K. Bandopadhyay, Prof. Bireshwar Banerjee, Prof. S.C. Mukhopadhyay for their helpful discussions and advice.

She expresses her heartful thanks to Sri A.K. Sengupta, S.M. Mishra and Prithis Nag of National Atlas and Thematic Mapping Organisation, Sri A.K. Sen of All India Soil and Land use Survey, Sri Swadesh Mishra of Agro-meteorological Department of West Bengal Government for their keen co-operation at different stages of this work.

The researcher is also grateful to Tapan Bhattacharyya, Abhijit Bhattacharya, Jismutbahan Sanyal, Biswajit Sengupta and Swapan Pal for their co-operation and help in times of village survey.

She would never forget the help of Ananda Sen, Mousumi Sen, Mr and Mrs K.K. Mohanty, Santanu Chakraborty and Soumya Pal in carrying out the computer analysis.

Her thanks go to the library staff of the Department of Geography, Calcutta University, and to all the organisations for their kind help, specially regarding... data collection. Scholar friends of the researcher deserve the same for their assistance.

She likes to pay her thanks to friends, Sriparna Bose, Sumita Dutta and Dr Sukla Sen, for their help in times of field survey.

She is also thankful to her sisters, Abanti, Simonti, Bidisha, Nilanjana, Suparna, Aparna and parents for their assistance and constant encouragement at different stages of the work.

Finally, she is thankful to the University Grants Commission for its financial support to complete the thesis.