List of Plates

1. A view of Turga falls in the Ajodhya hills, P.S. Baghmundi, Puruliya.
2. Bare barren lands with rocky exposures in the Gazaburu hills, P.S. Balarampur.
3. Panoramic view of Puruliya plateau with forest-covered residual hills (rear) and the gently undulating plain (front) downslope containing patches of kurthi and kodo near the village Barachatora, P.S. Balarampur.
4. Severely gullied almost dry bed of the river Kumari near Ghatbera.
5. Meandering course of the river Kangsabati with wide floodplain and point bar and shoal deposition in the lower course near Medinipur town.
6. Typical scene of the bad lands - gullied surfaces and ravines in the upper Kangsabati basin near Ghatbera, P.S. Balarampur.
7. Dense forest hill existing at a few places of Ajodhya hills, Ghatbera.
8. Dense teak forest near Siringi in Balarampur, P.S.-Puruliya.
9. Changing pattern of the barren bad lands (front) with the execution of social forestry programme (back) near village Darbaria, P.S.-Balarampur.
10. Mud cracks caused by hot spell and water scarcity in the plateau region of Puruliya district.
11. A canal of the Saharjore project, Murguma, Jhalda.
12. Murguma reservoir on Saharjore river with monadnocks of granite in the river.
13. A view of the Kumari irrigation project near the village Darbaria, P.S.-Balarampur.
14. The Kangsabati canal with forest-clad low residual hill in the rear.
15. Dried bed of the river Kangsabati on the opposite side of the reservoir in Mukutmanipur, P.S.-Ranibandh, Bankura.
16. With their bundles of wood collected from the Ajodhya hills, villagers waiting at Bara Unna bus-stand, P.S.-Balarampur.

17. The steep slope near the entrance of the tola Machatanr of Dumurbera village, P.S.-Balarampur, Puruliya.

18. A jhor bandh, the only source of water atop the hill tola Lukuichatani in the Dumurbera village, P.S.-Balarampur, Puruliya.

19. A privately-owned perennial well supplies irrigation water to the vegetable fields in Machatanr tola of Dumurbera village, P.S.-Balarampur, Puruliya.

20. A farm house atop the hill tola Lukuichatani in the village Dumurbera, P.S.-Balarampur.

21. Wheat has been introduced for the first time in the village Dumurbera, P.S.-Balarampur, Puruliya.

22. Typical house type along the side of a road in the village Dumurbera, P.S.-Balarampur.

24. A tube well, the only source of drinking water, in the village Darbaria, P.S.-Balarampur, Puruliya.

25. Girls on their way home after collecting Mahul, an important source of country liquor in the village Darbaria, P.S.-Balarampur, Puruliya.

26. Lac cultivation on a 'kul' tree in the village Darbaria, P.S.-Balarampur, Puruliya.

27. Rope making from Babui grass, an important occupation, in the village Darbaria, P.S.-Balarampur, Puruliya.

28. A 'Sadhubari' with a well and vegetable garden in the village Darbaria, P.S.-Balarampur, Puruliya.

30. Close view of the marshy tracts as developed in the Kangsabati valley beyond the Kangsabati reservoir down-stream at Ambikanagar with severe bank erosion.
31. Paddy cultivation on the dry bed of the river Kangsabati just beyond the Kangsabati reservoir at Ambikanagar.

32. Making of ornamenments with shola - a primary occupation of a Malakar family in the village Ambikanagar, P.S.- Ranibandh, Bankura.

33. A potter with earthen wares in the village Ambikanagar, P.S.- Ranibandh, Bankura.

34. The river Kangsabati progresses engulfing the village Nepura, P.S.-Medinipur, through the bank erosion.

35. Deep tube well irrigation, one of the most popular means of irrigation in the lower part of the basin in the village Nepura, P.S.-Medinipur.

36. A brick klin providing employment to a number of people exists in the village Nepura, P.S.-Medinipur.

38. Transplantation of paddy during the rainy season in the village Nepura, P.S.-Medinipur.

39. A meander of the river Kangsabati with salt encrustations on both banks in the lower course of the river just before its confluence with Kaliaghai in the village Madanmohan Chak, P.S.-Tamluk, Medinipur.

40. A defunct river lift irrigation device on the river Kangsabati in the village Madanmohan Chak, P.S.-Tamluk, Medinipur.

41. Rupnarayan canal supplying irrigation water to the village Madanmohan Chak, P.S.-Tamluk, Medinipur.

42. Betol vines, a profitable business in the lower part of the Kangsabati basin in the village Madanmohan Chak, P.S.-Tamluk, Medinipur.