Acknowledgements

In writing this dissertation, I have made use of many unpublished and rare materials. Mr. Kenneth Blackwell, Archivist of the Bertrand Russell Archives at McMaster University, Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, and his staff were kind enough to send me the materials. My indebtedness to them is immense. But for their kind help and generous cooperation it would not have been possible for me to complete this work. I here take the opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude to them. I am also grateful to Mr. Barry Feinberg, Secretary of the Bertrand Russell Estate, Hollybush House, Hadley Green, Barnet Hertfordshire, England, for giving me permission to obtain photocopies of Russell's unpublished political MSS. from the Bertrand Russell Archives at McMaster University.

My thanks especially go to Mr. Ken Fleet, Secretary of the Bertrand Russell Peace Foundation Limited, Nottingham, Prof. John G. Slater of Toronto University, Canada, Prof. Irving Louis Horowitz of Livingston College, New Jersey, and Mr. J. Lloyd Brereton, Editor, Humanist in Canada, who have helped me in various ways in my writing of this dissertation. I wish to record my heartfelt and sincerest thanks to Dr. Buddhadeva Bhattacharyya, M.A., D.Litt., for his invaluable guidance and constant encouragement.
