ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I must first gratefully acknowledge the esteemed support of the Ph.D.(Law) Committee of the Calcutta University under the Chairmanship of the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor for kindly granting me sanction/registration for submission of my this humble thesis.

This thesis could not see the light of the day unless the Organisers of the Seminar on Taxation held at Srinagar during October 1 – 6, 1977 (under the joint auspices of the Indian Law Institute, Central Unit, New Delhi and the University of Kashmir) favoured me with the opportunity to place my Paper "BUSINESS" & "DEALER" DEFINITIONS CAUSE DISPARITIES IN SALES TAX LAWS. That Paper earned so much applause that I was advised to develop it into a full-fledged research work for this thesis.

I therefore developed and updated that Paper under respected guidance, advice, suggestions and comments of the Bench and the Bar. That Paper thus is the nucleus of this dissertation.

I am grateful to Mr. Ranadeb Chaudhuri, Barrister-at-Law, Editor of Calcutta Weekly Notes and President of Surendranath Law College Trust. During my part-time lectureship in University College of Law, Calcutta he not only appointed me as a part-time Lecturer in his College since 25th July 1935 but also kindly granted advance of Rs.4000-00 to enable me to meet major part of the costs for preparation of this thesis. Without his inspiration and encouragement of Mr. Satyanarayan Ray, Advocate and Principal of that College, I could not have ventured to submit this thesis. I am deeply indebted to them.

I am obliged to my Learned Junior Advocates Mr. Achyut Kiron Choudhury B.Sc., LL.B., Ms. Jayanti Mukherjee M.A., LL.B., Ms. Kakoli Ganguly M.Sc., LL.B., Ms. Alo Chhaya Sil B.A., LL.B., and Mr. Golam Kuddus B.Com., LL.B. for assisting me in preparing the manuscripts of this thesis.

Last but not the least, I must acknowledge the laborious jobs of my only son Mr. Shibeshis Mukherjee B.Com.(Hons), Final LL.B., Student, Member, Commercial Taxes Practitioners Association, Mr. Tapash Pal Choudhuri Mr. Promit Roy B.Sc., D.M.S.M., Final LL.B., Student,my Publication Manager and Mr. Nilakantha Jena, my Office Assistant,for compiling the Bibliography, Table of Cases, and Table of Statutes etc.
