ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I wish to take this opportunity to express my sincere gratitude to my supervisor, Professor V. Subramanian for his excellent guidance and constant encouragement. His support and faith on me proved crucial in completion of this work. I owe a lot to him for whatever I have learnt while working under him.

I am thankful to the Dean of the school, Professor J. Behari for providing necessary facilities at school to carry on the research work. I am also thankful to the previous Deans, Professor Kasturi Datta, Professor D. K. Banerjee and Professor J. Subba Rao. I am also thankful to Professor V. K. Jain, Prof-in-charge, M.Sc. laboratory for providing me access to the M.Sc. laboratory without any hassle. I am also thankful to other faculties and staffs including technical staffs of the school; for it is their joint efforts which make the academic ambience of the school conducive for the carrying on research activities.

I am thankful to Dr. Dipen Das of CSRD, JNU for geo-referencing the sampling sites of my present work. My thanks are due to Dr. Saradindu Bhaduri of CSSP, JNU also. He helped me in many ways at different times.

While doing sampling in West Bengal I was helped a lot by the comrades of SFI. I am thankful to all of them. I am especially thankful to Samik Lahiri, MP for the help he extended to me during sampling. I must thank the officials and workers of Khetri Copper Complex and Hindustan Zinc Limited, Zawar for helping me in collecting samples of groundwater, soils, ores, concentrates and tailings.

I am fortunate to have a team of lab colleagues who were ever eager to help me. I am thankful to Manju, Joice, Seema, Umesh, Amit, Dhiraj, Pawan, D. P. saxena, Chatterjee, Deep da, Selvan, Manoj and Satyendra. I am especially thankful to Madhavan and Suranjit for actively participating and taking keen interests in my research work.

I wish to extend my special thanks to my classmates and friends who made my stay at JNU lively. I owe thanks to Sudesh, Chandu, Anirudhha, Ravi, Pramod and Shekhar. I am also thankful to my junior and senior colleagues of the school especially Sudesh Chowdhary who has been exceptional in extending helps to me at various stages of the work. Dr. Purushath was also kind enough to help me in interpreting Xray diffractograms. Pranav and Usha have been good hosts during my frequent visits to their house. Thanks to them also.

The support provided by the UGC in form of fellowship is duly acknowledged.

I must thank Atulan for helping me in doing statistical analysis of the data. I owe my thanks to all who have helped me in preparing the typescripts and copyediting it. Jyotirmoy, Surajit, Sugata, Anubhuti, Arindam, Sona, Souvik, Rishika, Mahesh, Pranav and Prakash have been exceptional in extending helps to me. I have been fortunate to have friends and comrades like Vijoo, Indranil, Albeena, Prasenjit, Rohit, Puran and Anurag with whom I have spent some of the best times here. The support and encouragement provided by Com. PMS Grewal was always helpful.

Finally, I wish to express my regards to my parents, sisters, brother and their families for their support and encouragement without which this thesis would not have been completed.
