Acknowledgements

I convey my sincerest thanks to Dr. Shyamal K Goswami for his incessant support, constant encouragement and guidance that kept me going through the thick and thin. Mere words are not adequate to express my gratitude for everything you have done, SIR.

I express my heartfelt thanks to Dr. Chinmoy K Mukhopadhyay for his valuable inputs and guidance. Your support and encouragement has always been there unconditionally at all times.

I thank Dr. Gauranga Mukhopadhyay, Chairperson, Special Centre for Molecular Medicine for all the support needed for my PhD work.

I thank the Dean, School of Life Sciences, for providing the infrastructure to carry out my work.

Looking back, it almost seems impossible to imagine lab 220 without Sindhu, Vibha, Neel, Sanghu, Nandu, Anita and Vineet; each one of you have contributed in your own special ways making the significant difference.

I thank Satpalji for all his help throughout my PhD.

I thank all the members of my SCMM laboratory for all their support.

I deeply acknowledge all the CIF members, SLS, with special reference to Alexander Sir, Sharma Sir, Khan Sir, Mishra Sir and Saini Sir for all the help extended.

My special thanks to Meenu maam for all the patience and 'parathas'. Kind help rendered by all members of the SLS office is deeply acknowledged.

I thank the entire SCMM family and all the official staff members for their help.

My sincere thanks to Prof. Debik Sarkar, Prof. Kasturi Dutta, Prof. Rajendra Prasad, Dr. Debashis and Dr. Rajesh Tyagi for their valuable help and suggestions. Special thanks to Mr. Nagarjuna, NII, New Delhi, for providing help in FACS analysis.

My special thanks to Sanghamitra maam for all the concern and love and Soham for being a wonderful company.

My Dear FRIENDS

Parul, Vikas, Paramita have always stood by me like my own family. Dear Fataak, you will always be cherished as a wonderful friend and human being. Tulina, Sanghamitra, Angana, Prasad, Dola, Sudhanshu, Lakshman, Himanshu and Abhijeet have been always there to make my days brighter and full of life.

I also thank Divya, Bimala, Tulika, Sanjay, Prem, Preeti, Purnima, Purnima, Jaided, Meenakshi, Narendra, Savarkar, Prashanth, Asif and all others for extending their support.

I acknowledge CSIR for providing me the fellowship for five years.
Neel has been always there as a trustworthy friend throughout. Sailing through this period would not have been smooth without you...!

This endeavor would not have been possible without my lifeline 'My Family'. Greatest of words seem small to express all my feelings... Bare Papa, you have been the one whom I have always looked upon and we all miss you...The love and blessings of all of you have always been there for me.

And Above All Blessings of The ALMIGHTY GOD.
