Acknowledgement

I want to record my sincere gratitude to my teacher, Dr. Swagata Sen, Professor of Commerce, University of Calcutta, for meticulously helping me at every step of my work and kindling in me the fire of optimism when I became depressed and crestfallen. Without his helpful guidance this thesis would have remained incomplete.

Unlimited is my gratitude to the authors of various research publications whose works have been consulted by me in course of my work. I am grateful to my teachers for their valuable advice and sincere help.

I am also helpful to Mrs. Tapati Sen, wife of Prof. Swagata Sen for her constant encouragement and help.

I would also like to record my deep sense of gratitude to my parents, my father, Sri Mrinal Kumar Motilal and my mother, Srimati Dipika Motilal, who were my constant source of inspiration for my higher education. I shall fail in my duties if I do not admit of the support provided to me by my family to create a congenial atmosphere at home so that my concentration does not get disrupted even for a moment. My loving daughters, Swagatalakshmi and Subhalakshmi not only sacrificed with a smiling face their precious hours of association with me, but also done their best to keep my smile on my face when I sometimes felt out of sorts. Last, but not the least, I gratefully acknowledge the help and inspiration received from my husband, Sri Smarajit Roychowdhury at every step of my journey towards Ph.D.
