

CONTENT

Introduction

Page no

1-15

Purpose

Up to 1951, the Growth of Corporate Sector

Independence and after

After nineties

Hypothesis Doctrine of ultravires and SEBI

Limitation

CAPM-Focused areas

Summary of the Chapters

Chapter-I

Concept and importance of SEBI

Page no

16-27

- 1.0 Introduction
- 1.1 Lack of transparency
- 1.2 Stock market – scams
- 1.3 Recent changes – conclusion

Chapter-II

Continuous with SEBI to administrative authoritative and its main object

Page no

28-52

- 2.0 Object
- 2.1 measures adopted by SEBI Is ensuring investor protection
- 2.2 SEBI chief seeks to allay investors fear.
- 2.3 A case of inside Trading Allegation in India.
 - 2.3.1 Loss to UTI.
- 2.4 Direction of Appellate Tribunal.
 - 2.4.1 Measures Adopted by SEBI.
- 2.5 Other important measures.
- 2.6 Securities Scam.
- 2.7 Entrepreneur.
- 2.8 A matter of perception.
- 2.9 Corporate entrepreneurship.
- 2.10 Corporate new venture unites.
- 2.11 The changing environment for corporate entrepreneurship.
- 2.12 Conclusion.

Chapter-III

Legal frame work of foreign trade when the relationship of the parties is contractual and non-contractual.

Page no

53-76

- 3. Globalization and world trade conception.
- 3.1 Non-contractual.
 - 3.1.1 FDI and the government .
- 3.2 No escape from trade pacts.
- 3.3 Treaties to lure Foreign Investment
- 3.4 India – Singapore CECA a Model pact.
- 3.5 SEBI booster for retail trading
- 3.6 SEBI not for Holcimotter
- 3.7 SEBI and role of W.T.O. and Corporate environment.
- 3.8 Objectives of Study
 - 3.8.1 The debate
- 3.9 Conclusion – Role of W.T.O.

Chapter-IV

SEBI role in respect of Inside Trading

Page no

77-95

- 4. Introduction
- 4.1 No Insider Shall
- 4.2 CAPM and share market
- 4.3 The CAPM
- 4.4 Empirical Results
- 4.5 Beta Stability and Bayesian Adjustment.
- 4.6 Empirical Determinants of BETA
- 4.7 Test of the CAPM
- 4.8 Future Research

Chapter-V

The social background of SEBI's concept of rights of the investors.

Page no

96-124

- 5. Introduction
- 5.1 Effects of ultravires Transaction
- 5.2 Exceptions to the Doctrine of ultravires
- 5.3 A symbiosis
- 5.4 A misadventure
- 5.5 Social Reality
- 5.6 Role of the Court in Investors Protection
- 5.7 Securities contracts (Regulation Act) 1956
- 5.8 Consumer Protection
- 5.9 Jurisdiction
- 5.10 Company's Act
- 5.11 Role of the Court under the Company's Act
- 5.12 Winding up by the Court
- 5.13 Conclusion

Chapter-VI

The Evaluation of SEBI's conception of right by the modern criteria

Page no

125-149

- 6.0 Introduction
- 6.1 SEBI cases not for short – selling
- 6.2 Now rights of an investor is safeguarded by SEBI guidelines
- 6.3 Evaluation of SEBI's performance
- 6.4 Company Law Board
- 6.5 Role of the Press

Chapter-VII

Company Law Reforms and SEBI

Page no

150-206

- 7.0 Bar Association vs. Union of India
- 7.1 Suganthialloy Coasting Ltd. (In Liquidation)
- 7.2 Vijay Kumar Gupta and others
- 7.3 George Phillip vs. Official Liquidator
- 7.4 Promod Maihotra & others vs. Union of India
- 7.5 Uniform formats prescribed by SEBI
- 7.6 Socio – Legal Impact
- 7.7 Secondary Market
- 7.8 Conclusion

Chapter-VIII

Conclusion

Page no

207-237

	Page no
Bibliography	268-277
Articles	278-284
Journals	285-286

Chapter 9

Recommendations

Page
238 – 267

- 9. Introduction
- 9.1 The issues agrees
- 9.2 The stock exchange are advised to
- 9.3 Disbursements of claims from 1PF / CPF
- 9.4 While making the application
- 9.5 Change in status and constitution
- 9.6 SEBI sets stage for Junk bounds
- 9.7 Conclusion – Credit ratings