ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all, I glorify the Almighty who is the author of all inspiration. I am indebted to him, a great mentor, came in form of my family, friends, guide & philosopher. I take this opportunity to express my endeavor gratitude for His blessings showered on me to be courageous and to overcome all the difficulties faced during this work.

I wish to place on record my profound sense of gratitude to my Research Guide Dr. Mary Venus C.J., Vice-Principal and Reader (Social Work), Rajagiri College of Social Sciences, Kalamassery, Kerala for constant encouragement given through out the course of the work. Her insightful guidance and stimulating suggestions have always been a source of inspiration to me in the successful completion of this work. I owe her a lot for being a guide in its true sense.

I am thankful to Rev. Fr. Jose Alex CMI. Director, Rajagiri College of Social Sciences and Dr. Joseph Injody, Principal, Rajagiri College of Social Sciences, Kalamassery for the support extended to me to complete my study.

I am very grateful to Dr. Lal Das, Director, Research Centre, R. M. College of Social Work, Hyderabad, for his immense help, guidance and support in all aspects of my professional development, especially in metamorphing the mere idea and interest to do work into an accurate scientific and systematic research thesis of this nature.

I am thankful to Dr. Kannan, Madurai Institute of Social work who readily showed his analytical thinking and valuable suggestions in this thesis work.
I wish to place my grateful regards to Dr. Arun Kishore N.R., Former Professor, Department of Psychiatry, Govt. Medical College, Thrissur, for his valuable suggestions and timely support rendered to me on beginning of this study.

I owe my gratitude for the kind help and assistance extended for my completion of this dream, from Dr. Parthasarthy, R, Professor, Department of Psychiatric social work, NIMHANS, Bangalore, Dr. Jannet Parameswaran, Social welfare Officer, KIDWAI Institute, Bangalore and Prof. Ramanaiah TBBS, Chairman, Dept. of Studies in Social Work, Manasagangotri, Mysore.

I express my sincere thanks to Rev.Fr. Franco Kavalakkat, Thrissur, Member of the Association of Orphanages and Charitable Institutions, Kerala, and Sri Jayachandran M.G. Former Secretary of Association of Orphanages and Charitable Institutions, Kerala for providing the help in conducting the study in a successful manner in the selected Children’s Homes of Thrissur District.

I find no words to convey my honest and sincere thanks to authorities of children’s homes in Thrissur, Kerala especially to St. Mary’s Orphanage, St. Annes Orphanage, St. Josephs’ Convent Orphanage, St. Vincent Orphanage, St. Vincent Orphanage, Lourde Nilayam orphanage, V.M.V. orphanage, Kalathode, and Shahid Faizal Orphanage, along with their caretakers, who helped and extended all kinds of support in their maximum capacities, without which this mission would be incomplete.

I am thankful to Dr. Lancy D’souza, Dean, Department of Psychology, Maharaja’s College, Mysore and Fr. M.D. Saju, CMI, Faculty, Department of Social work, Rajagiri College of Social sciences, for the timely help in the statistical analysis of my thesis and making me more comfortable with SPSS.
I shall ever remember the assistance provided by my friend Ms. Shimna E.S., Medical Social worker, Amala Institute of Medical Sciences, Thrissur and Mrs. Giji Francis, Faculty, Department of Social Work, Rajagiri College of Social Sciences, Kalamassery for untiring encouragement and support contributed significantly for the completion of this study.

I am very thankful to all the members of the administration staff of Doctoral Centre, Rajagiri College of Social Science, Kalamassery, for their timely help. I would like to specially mention the names of Sr. Pushpa, Prof. Jacob Aikara Sir, Mrs. Sheena, Mr. Kunjumon and Mr. Tony M.J. for the encouragement and help they have rendered.

I am thankful to Dr. Shobhana Hariharan, HOD and students Dept. of Social Work, St. George College, Bangalore and the Management, Principal, Colleagues and students of Vidya Vikas P. G. Department of Social Work, Mysore, who extended their full co-operation and support during the course of this study.

My sincere thanks to my friends and well wishers, Mrs. Magala Harindran, Dr. Geethakutty P.S, Fr. George Pulikuthiyil, Mrs. Seena K.M, Ms. Hemanjali M.P., Mr. Santhosh, Mrs. Nycil Romis, Mr. Saju Parackal, Mr. Babu C.J., my students Mr. Liju K, Ms. Kavita N, Mr. Jinesh Lal R V, Mrs. Srividya Raghunandanan, Mr. Joju K.J, Mr. Stephen M.J, who extended their unconditional co-operation and support during the course of the study.

My Father Late Sri Karalam Balakrishnan was a driving force within, it was his dream that his daughter should pursue doctoral study and this thesis is the culmination of all his love and blessings. My Mother Smt. C.S. Chandrika, is the source of inspiration and been a continuing support, to me during this period of my work. I fail to find words to express my love and gratitude to my beloved parents.

I extend my sincere thanks to my sister Dr. Sheela Karalam and her family and my brother Sri. K.Balakrishnan, and his family, for the timely support and help rendered to me during this study. I take this opportunity to thank all other members of my family, niece Indu and nephew Ananthu for their inspiration.

I fondly remember my Father in law Sri Srivatsa Iyengar, Mother in law Late Smt Vijayalakshmi, Uncle Sri. Sundararangachar, Mrs. Vijayakumari and all my relatives for their constant encouragement and inspiration to complete my studies.

I am extremely indebted to my beloved husband Sri. Muralidharan K.S. for his cooperation, encouragement, merciless critics and help which is beyond any calculable measure. This study is completed successfully, as a rent of his strong motivation.

I place special thanks to M/s Twinkle,Kalamassery for their kind help in the data entry, printing, and binding of this thesis.

I am pleased to record love to the respondents of the children’s home in the study, without their co-operation my study would be incomplete. Thank you all.

22.10.2010

Sheeja Remani B.Karalam