CONTENTS

CHAPTER — I.

INTRODUCTION

Object - Geographical location and historical background of Murshidabad District and the towns selected — Procedures adopted — Period covered

... 1 - 13

CHAPTER — 2

Changes In Demographic Conditions

Population and Urbanisation — Growth of population and migration in Murshidabad — Growth in urban population with special reference to Berhampur, Jiaganj and Jangipur — Change in the density of population

... 14 - 25

CHAPTER — 3

Development of Agriculture, Education, Electricity and Communication system in Murshidabad.

Improvement of agriculture — progress of education — Development of infrastructure — Electricity — Transport.

... 36 - 73

CHAPTER — 4

Changes In Occupational Structure

Labour-participation ratio and female workers — Scope of employment opportunities created — Mobilisation of workers

... 74 - 36
CHAPTER — 5
Changing Pattern of Trade & Business
Growth in the number of shops & other commercial establishments — Change in the nature of goods traded — Improvement in the condition of trade and business of the selected towns — Factors contributing to increased economic activities — Some problems

CHAPTER — 6
Household Income, Expenditure and Consumption
Increase in the level of household total and per capita average monthly income — variation in the level of household average monthly expenditure and expenditure on different items — consumption of certain selected articles and change in consumption pattern — growth in the volume of Institutional Savings — Factors responsible for the above changes

CHAPTER — 7
Inter-dependence Among The Towns During The Process of Growth
Role of Central Place — Relative position of the three selected towns in the Urban hierarchy — Inter-town Trade — Growth of Commercial interdependence — Reasons for slow progress of interdependence

CHAPTER — 8
A brief review of the findings and the conclusions arrived at

APPENDIX — 1(A)
Questionnaire addressed to households

APPENDIX — 1(B)
Questionnaire addressed to traders

Bibliography