ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Firstly I would like to express my deep gratitude to Dr. Thomas E. M., Associate Professor of Economics, Christ College, Irinjalakuda, my thesis supervisor for his excellent advice and guidance as well as his much valued friendship.

I am deeply indebted to Dr. Suresh T. K, Reader in Economics, College of Cooperation, Banking and Management, Kerala Agricultural University, Mannuthi under whose guidance I started my research work. Even after shifting from his guideship he was a constant encouragement to me for completing my thesis.

My special thanks are due to Dr. Raju K. V., Head of the Postgraduate Department of Economics and Research Centre, Sacred Heart College, Thevara for the encouragement extended to me in the completion of the thesis and the facilities provided in the research centre.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Harikumar, Head of the Department of Applied Economics, Cochin University of Science and Technology for the encouragement and timely assistance for completing my research thesis.

I would like to thank Dr. Enasu N. D. Principal, Rev. Fr. Jose Chittilappily, Manager St: Aloysius College, Elthuruth for their wholehearted cooperation and encouragement in my research work. I am deeply indebted to the former principals, Rev. Fr. Jose Kavungal and Rev. Fr. Thomas Chakramakkil for their timely encouragement and support.

My special thanks are due to Dr. Vijayakumar V. K, former HOD of the Department of Economics, Sree Krishna College, Guruvayoor for the patience in correcting the final draft of my thesis. I hope I have been able enough to benefit from his great insight and knowledge, and especially his great personality.

I am thankful to Dr. Davis Mundassery, Associate Professor of Statistics, Christ College, Irinjalakkuda and Dr. Simon T. D., Assistant Professor of Economics, Sree Kerala Varma College, Trichur for helping me in the interpretation and use of some statistical results.
I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Thomas P. J., former HOD of the Department of Politics, Shri. Francis P. V., former HOD of the Department of Hindi, Dr. Lazer P. K., HOD of the Postgraduate Department of Commerce, Shri. James K. K. of the Department of Physics and Mr. Anish and Mr. E. J. T. Das for their encouragement and cooperation.

I would also like to express my sincere appreciation and thankfulness for the assistance provided by the librarians of the Indian Institute of Management, Kozhikode, Centre for Development Studies, Thiruvananthapuram, College of Cooperation, Banking and Management, Kerala Agricultural University, Mannuthi, Department of Applied Economics, Cochin University of Science and Technology, Department of Economics, Dr. John Mathai Centre, Aranattukara and St: Aloysius College, Elthuruth.

Thanks are also due to Miss Gini Paul, Research Assistant, Gulati Institute of Finance and Taxation, Thiruvananthapuram for the help extended to me in the collection of data.

I am thankful to Dr. Ratnaraj D, Head of the Department of Economics, Dr. John Mathai Centre, Aranattukara for his very useful remarks on the form and content of the thesis. However, the responsibility of all imperfections of form and content, the literary style in the main, remain of course mine.

On this occasion, I remember with boundless love and gratitude, my parents, who made me, whatever I am today.

Above all, I bow before God Almighty for the timely inspiration.
