CONTENTS

Introduction ... 1 - 10

Chapter - I
On pramāṇas in general.

Is pramāṇa at all possible? The view of Nāgārjuna that pramāṇa itself is impossible. ... 11 - 21

Refutation by Uddyotakara. ... 22 - 39

The number of pramāṇas admitted by the Buddhists. ... 40 - 41

Analogy - objection and refutation. ... 41 - 42

Verbal testimony - objection and refutation. ... 42 - 44

Notes ... 45 - 55

Chapter - II
On perception (pratyakṣa).

Definition of perception given by Vasubandhu. ... 56 - 57

Refutation by Uddyotakara. ... 57 - 62
Definition of perception given by Diśnāga and its refutation. ...

The nature of sense-organs (indrīya). ...

Is manas a separate sense-organ? ...

How perception of the soul and qualities like sukha etc. is possible? ...

Notes ...

Chapter - III

On inference (anumāna).

The definition of inference by Vasubandhu. ...

Refutation by Uddyotakara. ...

Diśnāga's definition of inference. ...

Refutation by Uddyotakara. ...

The actual number and nature of the inference-components. ...

Buddhist objection on pratiññā-sūtra of Gautama. ...

Uddyotakara's answer. ...

The definition of naksā by Vasubandhu and its refutation. ...
Different definitions of nakṣa proposed by different Buddhists and their refutation. ... 118 - 122

The definition of thesis in the Vāda-vidhi - its refutation. ... 123 - 124

Vasubandhu's definition of the probans. ... 124 - 126

Refutation by Uddyotakara. ... 126 - 135

Diśnāga's objection against Gautama's definition of hetu (probans, the second inference-component). ... 135 - 139

Uddyotakara's answer. ... 139 - 143

Diśnāga's definition of the probans. ... 143 - 144

Refutation by Uddyotakara. ... 144 - 149

Another definition of probans by some Buddhists. ... 149

Refutation by Uddyotakara. ... 150 - 153

Object of inference - Diśnāga's view and its refutation. ... 154 - 156

Buddhist definition of the 'statement of example'. ... 156

Refutation by Uddyotakara. ... 157 - 158
Objection against reassertion and conclusion
(upanaya and nigamana). ...

Refutation by Uddyotakara. ...

Pseudo-probans (hetvābhāsa):
- Objection against 'unproved' (sādhyasama) pseudo-probans - refutation; objection against 'mistimed' (kalātita) pseudo-probans - refutation; objection against 'inconclusive' (anaikāntika) pseudo-probans - refutation. ...

Notes ...

Chapter - IV
On the 'part' and the 'whole' (avayava-avayavin).

In the whole a distinct entity - Buddhist view. ...

Refutation by Uddyotakara. ...

Notes ...

Chapter - V
On the doctrine of momentariness (ksanikatva-vāda).

The doctrine of momentariness. ...
Answer by Uddyotakara. ...

The meaning of the word kṣanika explained by Uddyotakara. ...

Notes ...

Chapter - VI
On the nature of reality.

All is void (Sarvasūnyatva-vāda):

Mādhyamika view of voidness of everything. ...

Refutation of the Buddhist view. ...

The denial of external objects (Bāhyasūnyatva). ...

Answer by Gautama. ...

Uddyotakara's own refutation. ...

Notes ...

Chapter - VII
On the purport of meaning of the word.

Apoha theory of the Buddhists as recorded by Uddyotakara. ...

Uddyotakara's answer to the apoha theory. ...

Notes ...
Chapter - VIII
On the art of debate.

Vasubandhu's definition of vāda. ... 327

Uddyotakara's refutation. ... 327 - 343

Notes ... 344 - 347

Chapter - IX
On soul.

The Buddhist view of the soul. ... 348 - 349

Uddyotakara's refutation. ... 349 - 369

Notes ... 370 - 373

Appendix ... 374 - 400

Bibliography ... 401 - 414