ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

A journey gets strenuous when you are alone. However, it becomes pleasant when you are accompanied. The thesis is a journey that I undertook, whereby I have been accompanied and encouraged by many people, whose aim was to see me successful. I would like to take this opportunity to convey my sincere gratitude to all those who had continuously encouraged and supported me.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Dr. Mahesha M. for agreeing to supervise my research work. I am indebted to him for the patience and critical suggestions that helped me in shaping my research skills and carry on through difficult paths. His insight, enthusiasm, and mission for providing high quality work have made a deep impression on me. I am really glad that I have come to know him in my life.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Dr. Premakumara G.S. Assistant professor of Economics, Department of Economics, University of Mysore, Mysore, whose thoughtful suggestions helped me greatly.

I would like to express my thanks to the University of Mysore and the teaching and non-teaching staff of the Department of Studies in Economics and Co-operation, University of Mysore for permitting me to pursue my research.

I would like to express my gratitude to the library staff from where I collected the research material. The information was largely collected from the library of Mysore University and the Department of Tourism Jammu and Kashmir.

I have no words to express my heartfelt thanks to my close and dearest friend Mr. Riyaz Ahmad Bhat, who has been my source of strength and extending whole hearted support in my endeavor.

In my opinion, doing Ph.D. was a scared journey. I wish to express my love and gratitude to the people who initiated me on this journey, my parents, my brother (Imtiyaz Ahmad) and my sister without their immense faith in me and their persistence, I would not have achieved this. This was one of the best decisions of my life as it shaped my being.

Last but not the least; I would like to thank all those who have directly and indirectly supported me in completing this task.
