Acknowledgements

This research would not have been possible without the tremendous help, support and patience of numerous people over many years, from supervisors to taxi drivers. It is impossible to thank everyone who has helped me and this work along the way. To all involved directly and on the periphery, I offer my most sincere appreciation and thanks. Several individuals have made this study on Malayan sun bear successful and I would like to express my sincere gratitude to everyone.

My sincere appreciation and thanks are for Dr. N.P.S. Chauhan, who served as my supervisor at the Saurashtra University and who provided me with essential academic and scientific support, help, and guidance throughout the work, enabling me to integrate science, conservation and academics. His valuable and friendly guidance on every stage of my research is greatly acknowledged. I express my sincere thanks to him and his family for all their affectionate attitude and love, and support during this phase.

I sincerely thank Shri P.R. Sinha, Director, Wildlife Institute of India for his constant help and support in carrying out this study successfully. I also express my sincere gratitude to Dr. V.B. Mathur, Dean, Faculty of Wildlife Sciences and Shri Dalal, Registrar, Wildlife Institute of India for their continuous help and support. I am also grateful to Dr. K. Sankar, Research Coordinator for his help and suggestions during various stages of my research work. I am sincerely grateful to Prof. V.C. Soni, Department of Bio-Sciences, and Dr. G.C. Bhimani, Dean, Saurashtra University, Rajkot for their constant help and support.

I am indebted to the Principal Chief Conservator of Forest and Chief Wildlife Warden of Arunachal Pradesh for granting permission to conduct this research work in Namdapha Tiger Reserve, and for all logistic support including accommodation during my field work. I sincerely acknowledge the support and trust of the Conservator of Forest, Divisional Forest officers, Range officers and forest staff of Namdapha Tiger Reserve. I express my whole hearted thanks to all of them. I am especially grateful to Shri Yogesh Kumar, Chief Conservator of Forest, Namdapha Tiger Reserve for his support and guidance during the field work. I greatly appreciate the support and trust of the technical staff in the office of Namdapha Tiger Reserve. Without their help and support, conducting research in the field areas would not have been possible. I am thankful to those who assisted me during field work, especially Mr. Aphu Yoha Youbin, Chhemiya Youbin, Siewiudu Youbin, Attseiw Youbin and Nwajashu Yobin. I express my deep sense of gratitude to all the local people residing in and around Namdapha Tiger Reserve, who provided me information on human sun bear conflict and logistic support in the field areas during the course of my study. I would also like to acknowledge the help of these local people.

At Wildlife Institute of India, my sincere thanks and appreciation are owed all the faculty members for their help and guidance at various stages of my field work and writing thesis. I truly and deeply wish to thank the faculty members, Dr. Y.V. Jhala, Mr. B.C. Choudhry, Dr. P.K. Mathur, Dr. G.S. Rawat, Dr. S.P. Goyal, Dr. Sushant Chaudhary, Dr. S.A. Hussain, Dr. Ruchi Badola, Dr. G.S. Bhardwaj, Mr. Qamar Qureshi, Dr. B.S. Adhikari, Dr. Bivas Pandav, Dr. Sivakumar, Dr. K. Ramesh, Dr. Nigam, Mrs. Bitapi C. Sinha, Dr. K. Vasudevan and Dr. G.V. Gopi who provided me their guidance, support and cooperation in many ways. I am especially grateful to Dr. B.K. Mishra and Dr. V.P. Uniyal for providing me lessons about wildlife; I learnt a lot more about personal life and human values from them. I am thankful to Dr. Devendar Thakur for his guidance and cooperation.

I thank all my friends who were there for me through thick and thin with patience and care. For superbly well-timed attitude adjustments and perspectives during this work, I am deeply indebted to Shri Satyaranjan Behera, Kuldeep Singh Barwal, Rajkishore Mohanta, Parkash Chandra Maradraj, Himanshu Shekhar, Joytirmay Jena, Kaushik Banerjee, Sutritha Datta, Krishnedu Mandol, Santunu Basu, Ninad Rout, Lalit Sharma, Dr. Gajendra Singh Rawat, Kamlesh Murya, Puneet Pandey, Manish Bhardawj, A. Pragathis and Iswari Rai Datta for their constant help in the data analysis and writing thesis.

I am particularly obliged to Mr. Rupesh Ranjan Bharti and Dr. Anirudh Mazumdar for their help in the data analysis and GIS work, I am thankful to my colleague Shri Lal thanpuia for his help and support during the field work, data collection, analysis and discussion. I would like to thank my friends and hostel inmates especially Shri Abesh Kumar Sanyal, Shudhanshu Mishra, Mukesh Thakur, Vivek Yumnam, Subart Bahera, I.P. Bopanna, Malay Shukla, Sujeet, Suresh Pawan Kumar and Dr. Vinay Bhargav for their help in fruitful discussions, support and encouragement during my stay at the hostel.

I express my sincere thanks to the staff of Library, Finance section and Computer and GIS cell. I am especially grateful to Dr. Panna Lal for his help in the GIS work and preparation of maps. Shri Virender Sharma of the DTP section helped me in preparation of my thesis, and Shri Vinod Thakur provided assistance in the scat analysis. I thank both of them. Shri Gyanesh Chibber deserve special thanks for providing continuous encouragement, help and support for writing the thesis.

Finally, I would like to thank my parents and other family members who have always been inspiring and supporting. I still remember when my father used to take me to the school especially during the examination time. Today I am completing my Ph.D. thesis and writing acknowledgements. Its long journey and my father has been always just beside me keeping his hand on my head and shoulder to give all his support what a father can give to his dearest son to see him on the top of the world. My mother’s unconditional love, care and prayers are always with me. My parents are first and last ones to believe that I could achieve my dreams. Today I bow down in front of them for everything. They greatly helped me in achieving this target.

I am indebted to brothers, sisters and brother-in-laws for having faith and their never-ending support that enabled me to fulfill this work. They greatly helped me in achieving this target. It would have not been possible for me to complete this work without their help, cooperation and support. I sincerely thank my wife, Sujata for her constant help, support, guide and cooperation.
In the last but not the least, I am thankful for my laptop, without which it was not possible to complete this whole manuscript.
