SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY

Primary Sources

Secondary Sources

Mukherjee Bharati, Interview, the Time of India October 1, 1989.

Lewis, Simon Impossible Domestic Situations Questions of Identity and Nationalism in the Novels of Abdulrazak Gumah and M.G. Vasanji 222 Thamyris 6 1999.

-------- The minorities and the Muse: observations on the obtaining Indian Scenario; The Muse and the Minority: Social concerns and creative cohesion; eds. Shchnaz Kama, Sudhir Mathur,(Delhi: India International Center 1996.

-------- Community in the Parse Novels in English Indian Literary Panorama Spring, 1995.

Periodical / Magazine

Newspaper Articles

The Karachi Herald May 1987

Online Articles

Richards Linda L., January Profile; Rohinton Mistry Interview at www.amazon.ca, March 2003.

Paul Sharrad Fabricating Community: Local, National and Global in Three Indian novels: University of Wollongong Research Online.

Websites

www.wikipedia.com

www.indianwriter.com

www.contemporarywriters.com

http://www.ncm.nic.in/minority_population.pdf

http://www.monsonmag.com/interview/i3inter_siddha.html

www.amazon.ca
http://www.curledup.com/familymahtive

http://Asia society/Org/arts/literature/rohintonmistry family matters and literary ones

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Herbert_Blumer

http://oxforddictionaries.com/definition/english/Anglo-Indian Deefholts Margaret: Anglo - Indian – Who are they? Referred on December 03, 2012.