5.1. FUTURE SCOPE OF WORK:

1. Detailed study should be done on Bentonite and the compatibilizer used in the present work.

2. The influences of different clays and the compatibilizer on the rheological properties of all the composites of both the clays should be studied separately and in combination.

3. The amount of clay entrapped within the polymer and outside the polymer should be studied through Fluorescent Spectroscopy and Dielectric responses.