ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This work is dedicated to Dr. Subhash Chander, Professor, Department of Commerce, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar, whose sudden demise brought irreparable loss to the entire fraternity. I started my work under his competent guidance. His immense motivation helped me to initiate this research work. My sincere gratitude to Dr. Jaspal Singh, Associate Professor, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar, who gladly accepted to take over this unfinished task. His whole-hearted support, quiet demeanor, persistent effort, excellent direction and eminent guidance assisted me to accomplish this research work effectively.

The support of my family and my children, all throughout the period of research work deserves to be acknowledged unconditionally. A special word of thanks to my son Shivalik who invariably was by my side, unassuming and with a smile, whenever any help was needed.

The cooperation of all well-wishers, library staff and support staff deserves to be recognized.

The grace and kindness of the Omnipresent Almighty has not been there in this endeavor alone, but all throughout at each step of my life for which I am indebted and bow before Him with all reverence. The blessings of the parents remain with you wherever they are and they like to see their children grow, prosper and shine.

Thank you all.
