Bibliography

A) Books

1. Aspinwall, O. and. (1997). system dynamics approach is applied to strengthen the understanding on TQM in higher education.

7. Sahney. (2004). An integrated approach is applied to identify the gaps existing in quality education and customer requirements in today’s modern education system.

B) Journals

18. Green. (1994). The measurement of performance is an inescapable feature of TQM.

22. Harvey. (1994). Quality need to be viewed as transformative rather than perfection process.

29. Khan, D. S. Analyzed and Identified the critical factor for the successful implementation.
29. Kwan. (1996). Attempts to trace the literature that discusses the application of TQM in education and addresses the differences between industry and education.

37. M.S., F. (2007). TQM is based on the assumption that people want to do their best and it is management job to provide environment through continuous improvement of the system.

C) Reports

Education. Retrieved from www.shodhganga.inflibnet.ac.in

37. Yashpal. (2008-2009). Yahpal Committee (Quality Improvement in higher Education, Technical Education, and University System.

D) Websites

