Acknowledgement

The whole research work presented in this thesis was accomplished with the help of many people from academic and non-academic fields associated with me directly or indirectly. It is now my great pleasure to take this opportunity to thank them. I feel immense pleasure to express my heartfelt gratitude to all of them.

It is with profound gratitude that I offer my sincere thanks to my supervisor of SGVU Prof. (Dr.) Radha Rani Saxsena, who was Retd. as a Reader from Dept. of Education, Banstthali Vidyapith and presently working as Dean, Education, MJRP University whose generous attitude and bighearted approach, inspite of her busy schedule and paucity of time, took much pain in giving me well judged and careful guidelines during the entire course of my research study. Hence, least to say, my guide left no stone unturned to channelize me so far the completion of this work is concerned and has been instrumental in ensuring my academic, professional and moral well-being ever since.

I am very much thankful to the honorable chancellor of Suresh Gyan Vihar University Sh. Sunil Sharma and chief mentor (Suresh Gyan Vihar University) Dr. Sudhanshu Sharma for giving this valuable opportunity to me to register as a Ph.D. student in SGVU.

I would like to express my heartiest thanks to Dean (Research) Prof. Dr. S.C Dwvedi, DGC-coordinator Sh. Gaurav Sharma and Research department of SGVU for all the necessary support, constant encouragement and providing necessary facilities to carry out research work without any hurdle throughout the period.

I would also like to express my thanks to librarians and their staff of SGVU, MJRP University and Banstthali Vidyapith to provide me reference material required during the research.

I am greatly indebted to Prof. G.N. Sharma, Prof. Hemlata Talesra, Prof. Usha Rao, Dr. Vijaylaxmi Sharma, Dr. Pratibha Gupta and Dr. Prem Ahuja, who provided me their constructive suggestions and ideas during the time of tool validation.
It is great privilege and pleasure to express my deep sense of gratitude to all professional education institutions and their principals and HODs as well teachers and all respondents who willingly supported and provided necessary facilities at the time of data collection which was the most difficult job during the investigation.

I wish to thank Mr. A.K Mathur who provided me his expertise help at the time of computation of results on computers. I also acknowledge Titu Thesis Centre and staff who were associated with me to provide appropriate structure to my valuable pages of research work in the form thesis through designing, printing and binding.

I thank all my family members, friends and colleagues who directly or indirectly provided me even a bit of comfort and any kind of help during my research work. They had been encouraging and supportive in all the periods of stress; their presence has made my life courageous during this course of research.

I would like to express my thanks to my most supporting and understanding husband Mr. Vineet Pakash Tiwari for providing me complete financial assistance and above all showing his faith in my capabilities and potentials to complete this research work. He is always behind me as my backbone and inspires & motivates me to complete this work. This effort of mine is completely for him to fulfill his dream and his intimate wish.

Finally, I pay tribute to my beloved parents and mother-in-law, brothers and their wives for their constant moral support, motivation, encouragement and blessing all of which empowered me to accomplish my goal. I owe much to my sweet children Pranav and Anushka for all the love and pleasure bring into my life.

And, how can I forget my power Lord Shiva whose blessings always enlighten me to work and make me still alive and finally realize my inner strengths in reverse circumstances.

And many others whose name I could not mention here, for there encouragement, support and generous help during my entire career.
