ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The present work will remain incomplete unless, I express my feelings of gratitude towards a number of persons, who delightfully Co-operated with me in the process of this research work.

No amount of words can adequately express the debt, I owe to my revered supervisor Dr. P.P. Anand, Department of Physics, Meerut College, Meerut for his constant encouragement, able guidance and thought provoking discussion during the course of the present investigation. I shall always treasure his affectionate guidance, thoughtful ideas, wise criticism. Wholehearted Co-operation, help and his patience during the study.

I express my profound respect and gratitude and sincere thanks with heartfelt feelings of veneration to Prof. V.K. Agarwal and Mrs. Meena Agarwal for their encouragement, able guidance, useful discussion and open hearted Co-operation during the present study.

I am extremely grateful to Dr. Rajbir Singh, Department of Physics, Meerut College, Meerut for his active Co-operation, discussion and continuous help throughout my Study. I also express my sincere thanks to Dr. S.S. Sharma, Head, Department of Physics, Meerut College, Meerut and all other teaching faculty of the Physics Department, Meerut College, Meerut, for providing me the measuring facilities, held and encouragement.

I owe a debt to Dr. N.P. Singh, Principal, Meerut College, Meerut for his encouragement. I also thanks to non teaching staff. Department of Physics, Meerut College, Meerut for providing me a progressive environment during this work.
I also express my Sincere thanks to Dr. Ritu Dewan, Principal DMA-II, Meerut for encouragement, moral support and relived me from time to time for completion of this work.

I cannot forget to express my thanks to my colleagues particularly Mr. Parmod Ahlawat, R.S. Updadhyay and Mr. B.P. Mathani, Mr. Sunit Sharma & Dr. Narendra Sindhu for their encouragement and moral support throughout my study.

I feel my acknowledgement will be in complete until I sincerely appreciate and encouragement of my sister in law Mrs. Mamta Rani and My Brother and his children during the period of this investigation, without whom this work was not possible.

In the last, I bow down, with folded hands, before my Gods for creating and removing unforeseen difficulties and paying way for me, to see this day. I confess my effort was sincere.

Pradeep Kumar Singhal