ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The research project was spread over a period of five years. During this period, a number of people have contributed in one way or another. It is a real pleasure to thank them. I apologize in advance to anyone inadvertently missed out.

First, I wish to thank God who provided me health, strength. May his name be praised

I would like to especially thank my Guide, Dr. Shaikh, Aftab Anwar. He has spent his valuable time. His ceaseless guidance and support from the start to the end. His methods of working and methodical meticulousness are unparalleled. I am extremely obliged to him.

It is not possible for me to describe in adequate words the helps and guidance I received from my “teacher- brother”, Mohammad Ali AL-rubedy - professor at Sana’a University - Accounting Department. He was with my shoulder-by-shoulder, lightened my way, and guided me in selecting the topic and reading the proposal of thesis. I did not feel shy to ask him when I was facing problems related to my study. His cooperation was excellent and reflected his human and scientific values.

I would like to thank the University of Sana’a that awarded me a scholarship to develop my academic career (Master and PhD) in INDIA.

I am extremely thankful to INDIA for giving me an opportunity to complete my academic study and completion of PhD. in Accountancy. As well as my children.

It is a matter of gratitude to remember and thank people who provided me excellent cooperation and encouragement (in India) such as:

- Dr (Prof) P.C. Shejwalkar (father of management)
- Dr (Prof) Ashok. Joshi- (Director of Indian institute of cost and management studies (Indsearch)
- Dr (Prof) Shirin.Rathore (Dean of Colleges –Delhi University- and international author in accounting field.)
I thank the many people and organizations who have written and researched in accounting field and who were kind enough to send various papers like AICPA, FASB, IFAC and international journal of accounting (Dr. Ahmed Rashad Abdulkhalek)
And Arab journal of administrative sciences -Kuwait university

I need to specially thank, University of King Abdul Alaziz- Faculty of economics and management for their excellent researches provided which enriched my knowledge and study...
I am particularly indebted to Dr. Abdulhamed Alseyh and Dr. Abdullah Ahmed Bamshmoos I benefited much from their Ph.D. researches in International accounting and international auditing, really, their dissertations were my best friend during my study.

Here, I would like to thank and appreciate the commerce department at Pune University and Dr. Prof. S.V. Kadvekar (Director of commerce department) for his excellent understanding and co-operation.

I would like to record my appreciation and thanks to Ph.D. section of Pune University and (Mrs.) V. Sathe for her excellent co-operation also Dr. S. Pandit (Director of foreign cell) for her helps and cooperation.

I would like to thank people who helped me in collecting annual reports of companies and distributing the questionnaires such as: Mr., Khalid abduhvaly, Al-absi (practicing C.A), Engineer, Saher Abdu Mohammed, Tofiak AL-Hkemyy (TAX auditor) and Abdu .Doobas (Manager of public relations of Hodaidah University and (Dr) Ahmed .Al- bawab (Yemen bank for development)

I would like to thank managements of Infosys group, Tata group, ALFA, group and Finolex Cables Limited (in India), Yemen International-bank, Yemen Kuwait bank, Islamic Saba bank and Islamic ALTadamon bank for their cooperation.

I would like also to thank Yemen embassy especially Mr. (ambassador), Mustafa Nomaan and Mr. Abdullah-Al slaamy for their supporting

My Biggest thanks to my loved mother, Her pray lightened my way and success. She is source of moral support and encouragement.

My Biggest debt as always is to my loved wife and daughter-Nagila -and my son-Shchab who typed my thesis in-spite of his study in IT.
