

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is my great privilege to express my sincere gratitude and indebtedness to Dr. P. K. Chakrabartty, Reader, Department of Microbiology, Bose Institute whose pedagogy has shaped this thesis through active guidance, criticism and discussions.

I offer my grateful thanks to Prof. A. K. Mishra for his advice and encouragement during the course of this work. I convey my sincere regards to Prof. S. L. Chakraborty, Chairman, Dept. of Microbiology and to Prof. A. C. Ghose, former Chairman of the Dept. for their interest in this work.

My sincere regards are due to Prof. S. K. Sen, Director (Actg.), Bose Institute and to Prof. B. B. Biswas, former Director for providing me with a fellowship and research facilities.

I am thankful to Mrs. Ila Biswas, Librarian, Bose Institute and the other staff members of the library for their solicitous assistance.

Special thanks go to Mr. B. N. Mondal for typing the manuscript and Md. S. Gazi for drawing the figures and doing the photographic works.

I am very grateful to all my colleagues, specially to N. C. Mandal, for help, cooperation and for providing a conducive atmosphere to bring this dissertation to a successful conclusion.
