ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

In the course of writing a thesis of this magnitude, one accumulates many debts, and I want to acknowledge the people who have helped me in so many different ways over the years.

First and foremost, my gratitude goes to my Supervisor, Associate Professor K. P. Vijayalakshmi, who brought great commitment and considerable conceptual talent and insights to this work. She dedicated herself to bring out the best out of me and without her ceaseless inspiration and unending support I would not have ventured into this difficult field.

I am also grateful to the other faculty of the Centre Prof. C.S. Raj and Dr. Chintamani Mahapatra for their moral support and enquiring about the progress of my research work from time to time.

I am thankful to Mr. R.R. Prasad (Director, Indian Council of Social Science Research, New Delhi) and Mr. Subhash Agrawal (Trustee, Rajasthan Education Trust, Jaipur, Rajasthan) for granting financial scholarships to carry out my research work.

I am thankful to the Dean, School of International Studies, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi, for sponsoring my field trip to the United States (in October-December, 2003) to conduct interviews, meet various dignitaries and visit libraries there.

I would like to thank Prof. R.K.Kale (Chief Proctor, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi), Dr. Devendra Sharma, Dr. Rajiv Sharma (Director, ISBWW, South Asiaa Zone, New Delhi ), and Mr. Shiv Kumar Verma for arranging my stay in Washington D.C. for six weeks.

I am extremely grateful to Mr. Kumar Mallick for accommodating me in Washington D.C. during my visit to the United States and helping me to adjust to the American ways and life. With out his helping and care I would not have been able to carry out the research properly. I also thank Mr. Malay Tyagi and Mrs. Niharika Tyagi to treat me as a family member and cooking Indian food to eat in the U.S.

I would also like to thank Dr Thomas Abraham (President, Global Organization of People of Indian Origin) for forwarding my request to meet Asian Indians in the Washington D.C. area to Dr. Renuka Misra (President, GOPIO, Washington D.C.). I am extremely thankful to Dr. Misra (Didi) for arranging meetings with elected members in the US and ex-officials who were Presidential appointees. She took care of me as an elder sister. I am also thankful to Dr. Gopal Bhatnagar, (NIH) for always ready to help me and giving information on the functioning of the various Asian Indian organizations in the United States.

I would also like to thank Kumar Barve (Majority Leader, Maryland), Dr. Darmendra K. Sharma (Political Appointee, Bill Clinton Administration), Dr. Sambhu N. Banik (Presidential Appointee and a Republican Delegate in the 2004 Presidential election), Mr. Kapil Sharma (Founder Member, Congressional Caucus on India and Indian Americans), Mr. Varun Nikore (founder President, Indian American Leadership Initiative, and Political Appointee, President Bill Clinton Administration), Dr. Parthasarthy Pillai (President, National Federation of Indian Americans and Past President), Mr. Sanjay Puri (Executive Director, US-India Political Action Committee, USINPAC), Mr. Chris M. Dumm (Executive Director, Indian American Center for Political Awareness), Mr. Chidanand Rajghatta (special correspondent, the Times of India, Washington D.C.) and various other people who agreed to speak to me and explain the nitty-gritty of the Asian Indians participation in the American politics.

I am also thankful to then Ambassador to Washington D.C. Lalit Man Singh for giving me time to talk about my research work. I am also thankful to Indian Embassy officials in Washington D.C. Mr. Alok Sheel and Mr. Sunil Lal both Indian Foreign Service Officers to give me insights about the Asian Indians in the United States.
I am also thankful to Mr. Allen W. Thrasher (Director, South Asian Division, Library of Congress, Washington D.C.), Mrs. Pamela Noyes (Head, Reference Department, Lauinger Library, Georgetown University, Washington D.C.), Library, George Washington University, Washington D.C., Jawaharlal Nehru Memorial Library, New Delhi, Library, Institute of Defence and Strategic Analysis, New Delhi, Library, Central Secretariat, New Delhi, Library, United States Information Services, New Delhi and Library, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi for allowing me to use their resources to carry out the research work.

I would also like to thank my friends Murari Meena, Jai Ram Meena, Mahendra Meena, R.C. Meena, Rahul Misra, Chander Bhan Yadav, Rakesh Thakur, Rashmi, , Rishi, Ajay Kumar, Sanjay Shokeen and others who have helped me in various capacities to complete this thesis.

I am extremely grateful to my parents for their encouragement and inspiration to carry out my research. I would also like to thank my wife and son for being patient and always encouraging completing the thesis.

Mukesh Bagoria