ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am honoured to express my profound and deep sense of gratitude towards my respected research supervisor, Dr. I. D. Gonjari, Assistant Professor, Department of Pharmaceutics, Govt. College of Pharmacy, Karad, for his creative suggestions, helpful discussion, unfailing advice, constant encouragement during the project work. I consider myself privileged to have worked under him, as he always shared his vast experience so generously and patiently. I sincerely appreciate the interactive help, received from him by the way of advice or suggestion.

I express my special thanks to my respected co research supervisor, Dr. K. N. Jayaveera, Head and Prof., Department of Chemistry, Jawaharlal Nehru Technological University Anantapur, for his valuable guidance, motivation, and direction which helped me all the times during the project work and writing of this thesis.

I take this opportunity to express my sincere gratitude towards JNTU Anantapur, for giving me an opportunity to pursue my studies for the present work and availing various ultramodern facilities, library facility and equipments at the institute for the research work.
Also I extend my sincere thanks to Prof. Dr. S. N. Dhole, Principal, Modern College of Pharmacy (L), Moshi and Prof. S.V. Joshi Head, Dept. of Pharmaceutical Chemistry, for their continuous support.

I extend my sincere thanks to Dr. Solav, SPECT Laboratories, Pune for allowing to perform gamma scintigraphy for my project work. I am also thankful to the library staff for providing books and journals for my reference work.

It gives me immense pleasure to express my thanks to my friends and colleagues Vrushali, Vijaya, Ujwala, Rohini, Sonali and Vinaya madam who believed in constantly motivating me and for their constant help and moral support during my Ph.D. course.

My deepest gratitude goes to my Parents, Brother, and my Husband and my daughter Sonu for their full-hearted co-operation, love and moral support made me to complete this work successfully.

One can never consent to creep when one feels an impulse to soar. I will always be thankful to The Almighty GOD for giving me the strength, will & wisdom to carry out the project work successfully.
