Acknowledgements

I am extremely grateful to my supervisor, Dr. Sankar Kumar Bhaumik, Professor, Department of Economics, University of Calcutta, for guiding me through my research with utmost patience. I sincerely acknowledge his contribution in providing some of the data bases as well as books and journal articles which proved to be essential in the context of my study. His insistence on quality and analytical treatment of the subject provided my work a definite direction towards its completion.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Mr. S. Kundu, Director, CSO (IS Wing), Government of India, who taught me the methodology of extracting and processing the NSSO unit-level data using Visual-Foxpro and SPSS software packages. I would also thank Mr. D. Mukherjee, NSSO, Kolkata, for helping me to sort out some methodological issues regarding data for the 67th Round survey of the NSSO.

I thankfully acknowledge the cooperation received from the officials of the Library of New Secretariat Building, Kolkata, who provided me access to the report titled ‘Directory Manufacturing Establishments Survey, 1984-85; Summary Results’, published by the CSO. I am also thankful to all the library staff of the Department of Economics, University of Calcutta, and Indian Statistical Institute, Kolkata, who always helped me to find necessary books, journal articles, and web-articles.

I am grateful to Dr. Sarmila Banerjee, Professor and Convener of Ph.D. Committee, Department of Economics, University of Calcutta, and other faculty members of the department for their helpful suggestions at the time of presenting my thesis summary in a pre-submission seminar.

I would also like to thank my colleagues in Seva Bharati Mahavidyalaya, West Midnapur, for their encouragement and cooperation during past one year. Special thanks are due to my fellow research scholars at the Department of Economics for sharing their ideas that helped me to construct the outlines of a few chapters of my thesis.

I am indebted to my parents for their concern, support, and inspiration that undoubtedly helped me to complete my research work. I would also thank my parent-in laws who have been considerate enough to provide me the space for pursuing this work. I shall also remain indebted to my husband, Mr. Dibyendu Ghosh, who was not only concerned regarding various requirements of my study, but also helped me analyzing the data using MS-Excel.

Finally, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to the God who provided me the strength to complete this work.
