List of Tables

1.1 Upper Caste and Class Dominance in Higher Education in India.

1.2 Social origins of Scheduled Castes in Higher Education in India.

2.1 Scheduled Castes in Delhi and their population in 1961 and 1971.

2.2 Caste-wise distribution of Scheduled Castes in the different tracts/zones of Delhi for 1961.

2.3 Caste-wise distribution of literates "with" and "without" education in Urban Delhi, for the years 1961 and 1971.

2.4 Percentage enrolment and 'Co-efficient of Equality' of the Scheduled Castes by type of Institution, in Delhi.

2.5 Caste-wise distribution of Scheduled Castes at different educational levels in urban Delhi, for the period 1961 and 1971.

2.6 Sectoral distribution of Scheduled Castes in urban Delhi in 1961 and 1971.

2.7 Caste-wise distribution of Scheduled Castes in the various Industrial Sectors in urban Delhi, for 1971.

3.1 Marital status of respondents and their siblings.

3.2 Educational attainments of respondents and siblings.

4.1 Reasons for discontinuing education.

4.2 Distribution of Scheduled Caste respondents by type of School management.

4.3 Distribution of Scheduled Caste respondents by part-time and full-time education.

4.4 Academic performance of Respondents in School and College.

4.5 Levels of Educational Attainments of Respondent's family.

4.6 Relative Educational status of Respondents, parents and respondent's wife.

5.1 Percentage distribution of sons according to their father's occupational status.
5.2 Sons whose status category is higher or lower or the same as that of their father.

5.3 Indices of Association and Disassociation.

5.4 Age and inter-generational mobility.

5.5 Sibling position and inter-generational mobility.

5.6 Inter-generational mobility and Education (all levels).

5.7 Caste and inter-generational mobility.

6.1 Percentage distribution of respondent's first job according to father's occupational status.

6.2 Respondents whose entry job status is higher, same as, or lower than that of their fathers'.

6.3 Index of Association and Disassociation.

6.4 Percentage distribution of son's current occupational status, according to his first occupational status.

6.5 Educational attainments upon entry to a job for first job and current job.

6.6 Part-time and full-time employment, by educational attainments, for first job and current job.

6.7 Type of organisation in which employed, for first and present job, by educational attainments at entry point.

6.8 How jobs were found, by educational attainment at entry point.

7.1 Level of Educational attainments by family size.

7.2 Level of Educational attainment, by family size, controlling for father's occupation.

7.3 Occupational attainments by family size.

7.4 Occupational attainments of respondents and their siblings by family size, controlling for father's occupational status.

7.5 Occupational attainments by family size, controlling for level of educational attainments.

7.6 Educational attainments, by sibling position.
7.7. Level of Educational attainments by sibling position, controlling for father's occupation.

7.8 Level of occupational attainments, by sibling position.

7.9 Level of occupational attainment by sibling position, controlling for father's occupational status.

7.10 Level of occupational attainment, by sibling position, controlling for respondent's level of educational attainments.

7.11 Educational attainments of respondents as a function of father's educational attainments.

7.12 Level of Educational attainment of respondents as a function of "older brother's" education.

7.13 Level of educational attainments of respondents as a function of older brother's education, controlling for father's education.

8.1 Zero-order correlation Coefficients, mean and Standard deviations, for selected variables in the model of occupational attainments.

8.2 Standardized Regression Coefficient for analysis of path model.

8.3 Unstandardized Regression Coefficients.

9.1 'Do you think there are any sorts of people doing noticeably better than you and your family'; by occupational status of respondent.

9.2 What sort of people are doing noticeably better than yourself and your family. By occupational status of the respondent.

9.3 What sort of people are better off than yourself even with little or no education. By occupational status category of the respondent.

9.4 What factors do you think have contributed to your improved status.

9.5 Problems and how they overcome them.

9.6 Who helped and nature of help.
9.7 Has belonging to the category of Scheduled Caste been helpful to you in obtaining employment.

9.8 Does Caste membership hamper your mobility.

9.9 Is the Occupation you are holding one of your choice? by occupational status of respondent.

9.10 Occupational expectation by occupational status of respondent.

9.11 Occupational expectations by level of educational attainment of respondents.

9.12 Occupational expectations by father's occupational status of fathers.

9.13 Are you confident you will achieve the position you expect to achieve and why do you think so?

Figures

Figure I: A conceptual model explaining Occupational Attainment.

Figure II: A Casual Model Explaining Occupational Attainment.