ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am greatly indebted to my Supervisor, Dr. (Mrs.) J. Indiresan, for her scholarly guidance, inexhaustible patience, and constant encouragement. Without her continuous support and encouragement, it would have been difficult to complete the present research programme.

I am also extremely grateful to Professor Tapas Majumdar, Chairman, Zakir Husain Centre for Educational Studies, for his encouragement and the interest he has shown in my work.

My grateful thanks are extended to Dr. Narindar Singh, Dr. (Mrs.) Sushila Singhal and Dr. (Mrs.) Karuna Ahmad for their keen interest in my work and the guidance they have extended to me.

My sincere thanks to my father, Dr. N. Ghatak, for his invaluable encouragement and support to help me through the present research programme.

I am also very grateful to my family and my friends for their unfailing help in my work. My special thanks are extended to Mr. Sunil Bajaj for his extreme cooperation and support, without whom it would have been difficult to complete my work. My special thanks are also extended to Mr. Surendra Pattnaik for his suggestions and kind help.

I am very grateful to the teaching personnel of the Model School, Kasturba Niketan, New Delhi, for their keen support.

Lastly, I am obliged to the University Grants Commission for awarding me the fellowship, which made it possible for me to undertake this study.

Rita Ghatak

New Delhi.