CONTENT

INTRODUCTION 1-16

Chapter 1 17-65

The Arrival of Modernity and the Ongoing Clashes of the Modernists and Traditionalists

A. Islamic Civilization and the Rise of New Problems 19-31
B. The Clumsy Steps to Encounter Modernity 32-40
C. Modernization Without Modernity 41-48
D. Ideologization of Islam 49-56
E. The Post-Traumatic Resurgence of a Disordered Tradition 57-65

Chapter 2 66-108

The Western Secularization, and the Illbreeding of Secularism in Religious Societies

A. The Western Political Secularization 69-80
B. The Advent of the New Outlooks and the Further Conceptual Development of Secularism 81-95
C. Omnipresence of Religion and the Awkwardness of Secularism: A Reality or a Prejudice? 96-108

Chapter 3 109-145

The Limits of Rationalism and Rethinking Modernity

A. Modernity as the Triumph of Reason in History 112-127
B. The Rationalization of the World 128-135
C. Crisis of Rationalism 136-145

Chapter 4 146-194

The Discursive Modernity and the Necessities of a Secular Framework of Social Formation
A. A Discursive Notion of Modernity 149-162
B. Modern Morality and the Demand of Inclusion 163-179
C. Modern Democracy and the Demand of a Contextual Secularism 180-194

Chapter 5 195-242

Shiism and Reflection on the Past and Future
A. The Political Leadership in Twelver Shiism and the Relevance of Secularism 196-213
B. Rethinking Authenticity and the Experience of Political Islam 214-232

Concluding Remarks 233-242
Bibliography 243-262