ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

When I look back, I begin to realise how much I owe to the various personalities whose untiring help and inspiration made this research work possible.

I gratefully express my indebtedness to Prof. Malika Banerjee, Department of Psychology, University of Calcutta. Without her able guidance it could not have been possible to complete this study.

I would like to extend my sincere regards and gratitude to Dr. Saugata Basu, Associate Professor, Department of Psychology, University of Calcutta. His active help, true concern and functional advice at every stage of the study made the whole thing possible.

I am also grateful to Dr. Malati Ghosh, Professor, Institute of Psychiatry & Advanced Studies, Kolkata and Dr. Malay Ghoshal, Associate Professor, Department of Psychiatry, Calcutta Medical College, Kolkata for their cooperation during collection of data.

I would like to extend my heartfelt thanks to my friend Dr. Rajlakshmi Guha for her help and due support.

I also gratefully acknowledge Mr. K.B. Bag, Mr. Dinesh Sharma, Dr. Nilansu Das for their timely help.

I am indebted to maa & bapi and all my family members and friends for being with me throughout the course of the study.

I am ever grateful to Dr. Dipankar Bag, my husband, for his constructive criticism and co-operation till the end.

Lastly, I would like to remember those patients and their relatives who extended their full co-operation in this research work. I pray to God for their recovery and better mental health.
