Chapter I
INTRODUCTION
1.1. INTRODUCTION: 1
1.2. AREA UNDER STUDY: 8
1.3. STATEMENT OF THE RESEARCH PROBLEM: 8
1.4. GAP IN THE RESEARCH WORK AND NEED FOR THE STUDY: 11
  1.4.1. Production of raw silk: 11
  1.4.2. Absence of suitable weaving technology for Baluchari manufacturing: 12
  1.4.3. Inadequate effort from the government and non-government sectors to raise the socio-economic condition of the weavers: 13
  1.4.4. Search for new market and adopting attractive measures for the customers: 14
1.5. OBJECTIVES OF THE STUDY: 14
1.6. HYPOTHESES AND ISSUES, REGARDING SURVIVAL OF BALUCHARI CRAFT: 15
  1.6.1. Hypotheses: 15
  1.6.2. Issues: 16
    1.6.2.1. Significance of silk as a textile fiber and its economic value in relation to weaving and maintenance: 17
    1.6.2.2. Evolution and journey of Baluchari from historical past to modern days: 17
    1.6.2.3. Role of Government policies and the actions taken by Government and non-Government nodal agencies in the Baluchari-business: 18
    1.6.2.4. Examination of the future prospects of Baluchari through its market analysis: 18
    1.6.2.5. Nature of vicious cycle producing obstacles on Baluchari - business: 18
    1.6.2.6. Measures to break the vicious cycle of business operation in relation to Baluchari manufacturing: 19
1.7. OVERVIEW OF LITERATURE: 19
  1.7.1. Literature on Silk 19
  1.7.2. Literature on Bishnupur 22
Chapter II
INTRODUCTION TO TEXTILE AND SILK WEAVING WITH SPECIAL REFERENCE TO INDIAN WEAVING TRADITION

2.0 INTRODUCTION:

2.1 SIGNIFICANCE AND CHARACTERISTICS OF TEXTILE:

2.1.1 Some useful definitions:

2.1.2 Classification of textile fibres:

2.1.3 Physical properties of the fibres:

2.1.3.1 Fibre structure:

2.1.3.2 Associated physical impurities:

2.1.3.3 Colour and pigmentation:

2.1.3.4 Fibre length and evenness of length:

2.1.3.5 Crimp:

2.1.3.6 Fineness or diameter

2.1.3.7 Twist:

2.1.4 Chemical properties:
2.1.5. Textile serviceability: 48
  2.1.5.1. Aesthetic properties: 48
  2.1.5.2. Durability properties: 49
  2.1.5.3. Comfort properties: 49
  2.1.5.4. Appearance retention properties: 50
  2.1.5.5. Care properties: 50
  2.1.5.6. Fibre identification: 50

2.2. SILK: THE MAIN RAW MATERIAL OF THE BALUCHARI INDUSTRY: 51
  2.2.1. Production Method of Silk: 51
  2.2.2. Sericulture: the production of cultivated silk: 54
  2.2.3. Properties of silk: 55
    2.2.3.1. Physical properties of silk: 55
    2.2.3.2. Mechanical properties: 55
    2.2.3.3. Chemical properties: 56
    2.2.3.4. Other properties: 56
  2.2.4. Uses for silk: 58
    2.2.4.1. Apparel: 58
    2.2.4.2. Furnishings: 58
    2.2.4.3. Animal rights: 58
    2.2.4.4. Other uses: 59

2.3. PROCESSING STEPS OF THE SILK YARN PRIOR TO WEAVING: 59
  2.3.1. Spinning: 59
  2.3.2. Reeling: 60
  2.3.3. Throwing: 60
  2.3.4. Weighting: 60
  2.3.5. Scouring: 60
  2.3.6. Bleaching: 61
  2.3.7. Dyeing: 61
  2.3.8. Softening: 61

2.4. PROCESSES OF SILK-WEAVING BY HANDLOOM: 62
  2.4.1. Motions of weaving: 62
    2.4.1.1. Shedding: 62
    2.4.1.2. Picking: 62
    2.4.1.3. Beating – up: 62
    2.4.1.4. Take – up motion: 62
    2.4.1.5. Let – off motion: 63
  2.4.2. Parts of the Handloom: 63
    2.4.2.1. Warp: 63
    2.4.2.2. Weft: 63
    2.4.2.3. Healdshaft: 63
    2.4.2.4. Treadle: 63
2.4.2.5. Lifting: 64
2.4.2.6. Sley: 64
2.4.2.7. Shuttle box: 64
2.4.2.8. Shuttle: 64
2.4.2.9. Picker: 64
2.4.2.10. Reed: 64
2.4.2.11. Weaver's Beam or Warp Beam: 65
2.4.2.12. Back Beam or Back Rest: 65
2.4.2.13. Breast Beam or Front Rest: 65
2.4.2.14. Cloth Beam: 65
2.4.2.15. Lease Rods: 65
2.4.2.16. Temple: 66
2.4.3. Different types of the Handloom: 66
  2.4.3.1. Throw - shuttle Loom or Pit Loom: 66
  2.4.3.2. Fly - shuttle Pit Loom: 66
  2.4.3.3. Chittaranjan Loom: 67
  2.4.3.4. Multiple - Box Handloom: 67
  2.4.3.5. Northrop Automatic Bobbin - changing Loom: 69
  2.4.3.6. Shuttle - less Loom: 69
2.4.4. Processes of weaving patterns and designs: 69
  2.4.4.1. Dobby shedding in handloom: 69
  2.4.4.2. Jacquard: 69
  2.4.4.3. Computer Aided Textile Designing (CATD) for woven fabrics: 73
  2.4.4.4. Computer Aided Manufacturing (CAM): 74
2.5. SILK IN WORLD HISTORY: 74
2.6. SILK IN INDIA: 78
  2.6.1. Ancient India: 78
    2.6.1.1. Reference in Mythology: 79
    2.6.1.2. Ancient historical References: 79
  2.6.2. Medieval period: 79
  2.6.3. British period: 80
    2.6.3.1. Situation of silk industry in the Eastern India, especially in Bengal: 80
    2.6.3.2. Situation of silk industry in the Western India: 82
    2.6.3.3. Situation of silk industry in the Southern India: 82
  2.6.4. Silk in modern India: 83
    2.6.4.1. Strength of Indian Silk Industry: 84
    2.6.4.2. The areas of weakness of Indian silk industry: 84
    2.6.4.3. Silk-production centers of India, other than West Bengal: 84
    2.6.4.4. Significance of Sericulture in Indian Economy: 85
    2.6.4.5. Impact of recent recession in World Economy on Indian silk production and silk export: 89
    2.6.4.6. Situation of Sericulture and silk weaving industry in West Bengal: 91
Chapter III

BISHNUPUR AND THE HISTORY OF ITS BALUCHARI CRAFTSMANSHIP

3.1. A BRIEF ACCOUNT OF THE STUDY AREA:
   3.1.1. Physical features: 99
   3.1.2. Climate: 100
   3.1.3. Natural Vegetation: 100
   3.1.4. Transport and other infrastructure: 101
   3.1.5. History of Bishnupur: 102

3.2. CULTURAL BACKGROUND OF BISHNUPUR:
   3.2.1. Bishnupur Gharana: 104
   3.2.2. Conch-shell and coconut-shell industry: 105
   3.2.3. Lantern industry: 105
   3.2.4. Brass utensil industry: 106
   3.2.5. Making of Dashabatar card: 106
   3.2.6. Preparation of scented Amburi tobacco: 106
   3.2.7. Terracotta industry and architecture: 110
   3.2.8. Temples of Bishnupur: 110
   3.2.9. Big tank-system of Bishnupur: 111

3.3. SILK WEAVING IN BISHNUPUR:

3.4. THE SPIRIT OF HANDLOOM IN INDIA:

3.5. TEXTILE TRADITIONS OF WEST BENGAL:
   3.5.1. Cloth of ancient times: 114
   3.5.2. Famous cloths – still available in present days: 115

3.6. SAGA OF BALUCHARI:
   3.6.1. The evolution: 119
   3.6.2. The golden age: 120
   3.6.3. The ill fate: 122
   3.6.4. Impact of the colonial rule: 122
   3.6.5. Resuscitation of Baluchari:
      3.6.5.2. Sri Subho Tagore: 126
      3.6.5.3. Sri Akshay Kumar Das Patranga: 126
      3.6.5.4. Making of ‘Story-Baluchari’: 127
   3.6.6. Recent efforts: 128

3.7. MAKING OF BALUCHARI:
   3.7.1. Rehanking: 129
   3.7.2. De-gumming: 130
   3.7.3. Dyeing: 130
   3.7.4. Looms: 130
   3.7.5. Designing:
      3.7.5.1. Influence of Muslim culture: 131
      3.7.5.2. Influence of colonial rule: 131
      3.7.5.3. Influence of Krishna based temple culture of Bishnupur: 131
3.7.5.4. Influence of modern market-based economy: 132
3.7.5.5. Different steps to design a Baluchari are as follows: 132
3.7.5.6. Preparation of card-deck: 132
3.7.6. Baluchari economy: 132

Chapter IV

ROLE OF AGENCIES AND INSTITUTIONS IN PETRONISING HANDLOOM INDUSTRY AND BALUCHARI CRAFT 136

4.1. INTRODUCTION: 136

4.2. NODAL AGENCIES AND INSTITUTIONS: 136
  4.2.1. Office of the Development Commissioner for Handlooms: 136
  4.2.2. Twenty five Weavers’ Service Centres in twenty States: 136
  4.2.3. Five Indian Institutes of Handloom Technology: 137
  4.2.4. Chief Enforcement Office: 138
  4.2.5. The Office of the National Handloom Development Corporation, Lucknow: 138
  4.2.6. The Crafts Council of India (CCI): 138
  4.2.7. National Centre for Textile Design: 138
  4.2.8. Central Silk Board: 138
  4.2.9. Khadi and Village Industries Commission (KVIC): 139

4.3. EFFORTS AND POLICIES OF THE GOVERNMENT: 139
  4.3.1. National Textile Policy – 2000: 139
  4.3.2. Sectoral initiatives for silk: 141
  Within the framework of the Policy, the following sector – specific initiatives will be taken: 141
    4.3.2.1. Raw materials: 141
    4.3.2.2. Spinning Sector: 142
    4.3.2.3. Weaving Sector: 142
    4.3.2.4. Handloom Industry: 142
    4.3.2.5. Made-ups: 143
    4.3.2.6. Processing and Finishing: 143
    4.3.2.7. Clothing: 144
    4.3.2.8. Exports: 144
  4.3.3. Other thrust areas: 145
    4.3.3.1. Information Technology (IT): 145
    4.3.3.2. Human Resource Development: 145
    4.3.3.3. Fiscal and Financing arrangements: 146
    4.3.3.4. The role of the Central Silk Board: 146

4.4. RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT IN THE HANDLOOM SECTOR: 146
  4.4.1. Development of plastic parts for replacement of wooden parts by National Handloom Development Corporation Ltd., (NHDC) Lucknow: 147
4.4.2. Development of Electro-magnetic system to eliminate punched cards in conventional Jacquards by Indian Institute of Technology (IIT), Delhi: 147

4.4.3. Manufacture and installation of modified looms (3 units of 8 sets) by Weavers' Service Centre (WSC), Bengaluru: 148

- 4.4.3.1. Solid border korvai technique weaving loom (catch-card loom): 148
- 4.4.3.2. Double treadle jacquard loom: 148
- 4.4.3.3. Swivel loom for butti weaving: 148
- 4.4.3.4. Development of Lappet weaving on handlooms by Weavers' Service Centre (WSC), Jaipur: 149
- 4.4.3.5. Development of Extra Weft Butti weaving mechanism by Weavers' Service Centre (WSC), Vijayawada: 149

4.5. INTEGRATED HANDLOOMS DEVELOPMENT SCHEME (IHDS) CENTRALLY SPONSORED PLAN SCHEME IN XITH PLAN PERIOD: 149

- 4.5.1. The cluster approach: 150
  - 4.5.1.1. Baseline Survey: 150
  - 4.5.1.2. Diagnostic Study: 150
  - 4.5.1.3. Items eligible for financial assistance for Cluster Development: 151
  - 4.5.1.4. Formation of Consortium: 151
  - 4.5.1.5. Corpus fund for setting up of yarn Depot: 151
  - 4.5.1.6. Design development and product diversification: 152
  - 4.5.1.7. Common Facility Centre / Dye House: 152
  - 4.5.1.8. Publicity and Marketing: 152
  - 4.5.1.9. Project Management Cost: 153
  - 4.5.1.10. Assistance for individual weavers in a Cluster: 153
  - 4.5.1.11. Construction of Work shed: 155
  - 4.5.1.12. Skill up-gradation: 155
  - 4.5.1.13. ‘Group Approach’ for Development of Handlooms: 156
  - 4.5.1.14. Financial Assistance to the Handloom Organizations: 156
  - 4.5.1.15. Assistance for Innovative Ideas and Publicity, Monitoring, Supervision, Training and Evaluation of Schemes: 156

4.6. “HEALTH INSURANCE SCHEME (HIS)” – A COMPONENT OF HANDLOOMS WEAVERS COMPREHENSIVE WELFARE SCHEME: 157

- 4.6.1. Objectives: 157
- 4.6.2. Eligibility: 158
- 4.6.3. Cashless facility: 158

4.7. MARKETING AND EXPORT PROMOTION SCHEME FOR THE 11th FIVE YEAR PLAN (2007-08 to 2011-12): 159

4.8. ORGANIZATIONS OF EXHIBITIONS, EVENTS AND CRAFT MELAS: 159

- 4.8.1. National Handloom Expo: 159
- 4.8.2. Special Expos: 160
4.8.3. District-level events: 161
4.8.4. Craft mela: 161
4.8.5. Urban Haat: 162

4.9. SCHEME FOR REIMBURSEMENT OF ONE TIME REBATE @ 10 percent (given on sale of handloom products by the handloom agencies during 2006-07, 2007-08 and 2008-09): 162

4.10. HANDLOOM MARK: 164
4.10.1. Scheme-implementation procedures: 164
4.10.2. Price of the Label: 165
4.10.3. Consumer concern: 165

4.11. SILK MARK: 165

4.12. SCHEMES OF KHADI AND VILLAGE INDUSTRIES COMMISSION:
4.12.2. Award Scheme: 166
4.12.3. Buyers-Seller’s meet: 166
4.12.4. Sending of trade-delegation abroad: 167
4.12.5. Organizing of seminars and workshops: 167
4.12.6. PRODIP Scheme: 167
4.12.7. Spending of KVIC grant: 167
4.12.8. Work shed Scheme for Khadi artisans: 168
4.12.10. Khadi Certification and costing scheme: 170
4.12.11. Other Schemes of Khadi:

Chapter V 173-225
MARKET ANALYSIS FOR BALLCHARI 173

5.0. INTRODUCTION: 173
5.1. SIZE OF THE MARKET FOR INDIAN TEXTILE: 173
5.1.1. Size of the domestic household market as a whole: 174
5.1.2. Size of the domestic market (item-wise):
5.1.2.1. Market for sari: 176
5.1.2.2. Market of Stole (Chadar): 177
5.1.2.3. Market of Bed-spread : 177
5.1.2.4. Market for Salwar Kameez: 177
5.1.2.5. Market for Dhoti: 178
5.1.2.6. Market for Coating / Suiting: 178
5.1.3. Brief Profile of Domestic textile and Clothing Market of India during 2006 and 2007: 179
5.1.3.1. Per Capita Purchases of Textiles by Different Fibres in Different Areas during 2006 and 2007. (Q: Quantity in metres, V: Value in Rupees) 179
5.1.3.2. Aggregate Purchases of Textiles by Different Fibres in Different Areas during 2006 and 2007 (Q: Quantity in million metres, V: Value in million rupees) 180

5.1.3.3. Per Capita Purchases of Textiles for Males and Females during 2006 and 2007 (Q: Quantity in metres, V: Value in Rupees): 181

5.1.3.4. Per Capita Purchases of Major Varieties of Textiles in Different Areas during 2006 and 2007 (Q: Quantity in metres, V: Value in Rupees): 182

5.1.3.5. Aggregate Purchases of Major Varieties of Textiles in Different Areas during 2006 and 2007 (Q: Quantity in million metres, V: Value in million Rupees): 183

5.1.3.6. Per Capita Purchases of Textiles in Different Areas by Different Income Groups during 2006 and 2007 (Q: Quantity in metres, V: Value in Rupees): 184

5.1.3.7. Aggregate Purchases of Textiles in Different Areas by Different Income Groups during 2006 and 2007 (Q: Quantity in million metres, V: Value in million Rupees): 185

5.1.3.8. Distribution of Households According to Total Expenditure on Textiles during 2006 and 2007 (Here number of surveyed households have been shown) 186

5.1.3.9. Aggregate Purchases of textiles by Fibres in Different Regions during 2006 and 2007 (Q: Quantity in million metres, V: Value in million Rupees) 188

5.2. HANDLOOM SECTOR IN WEST BENGAL AS WELL AS BALUCHARI INDUSTRY IN BISHNUPUR AT A GLANCE (data as on 2008) 189

5.2.1. Number of looms: 189

5.2.2. Number of employment 190

5.2.3. Number of Primary Weaving Cooperative Societies (PWCS) 190

5.2.4. Projects under integrated Handloom Development Scheme in No. of Handloom Cluster Development Scheme (IHDS) 190

5.3. MARKET ANALYSIS FOR BALUCHARI:

5.3.1. Potential Market for items, other than sari: 191

5.3.2. Potential Market for sari: 192

5.3.3. Marketing of Baluchari by the Government sector:

5.3.3.1. State Participation in the marketing of Baluchari produced by Primary Weavers Cooperative Societies: 192

5.3.3.2. Registration of Baluchari under Geographical Indication (G.I.) of goods (Registration and Protection) Act, 1999: 194

5.3.3.3. Assistance to National Institute of Fashion Technology (NIFT): 195

5.3.3.4. Other activities: 195

5.3.4. Marketing of Baluchari by the non – Government sector:

5.3.4.1. Amount of sale 195

5.3.4.2. Rank of different types of silk products according to sale 201
5.3.4.3. Rank according to customers preference among three types of Baluchari
5.3.4.4. Production cost / Price of Baluchari in rupees
5.3.4.5. Price elasticity of Baluchari:
5.3.4.6. Potential worth of the customer base of Baluchari
5.3.5. Market – share of Baluchari in comparison to other substitutes in the market of silk – sari (as per data collected from different exhibitions cum sale):
5.3.6. Data related to market-share of Baluchari generated from customer survey:
  5.3.6.1. Profile of the respondents:
  5.3.6.2. Findings of the survey:
5.3.7. Percentage share for sale of Baluchari out of all types of silk in Kolkata
5.3.8. Market of Baluchari outside West Bengal
5.3.9. Comparative study among Baluchari and its close substitutes

5.4. MODERN RETAIL CONCEPTS THAT CAN BE IMPLEMENTED IN BALUCHARI INDUSTRY:
5.4.1. Baluchari in the shopping malls:
5.4.2. Effort to steer customers on part of State Government:
5.4.3. Perfect combination of ABCD people:
5.4.4. Handloom like Baluchari should go for making ‘international brand’:
  5.4.4.1. To join in the big retail chain:
  5.4.4.2. Making of USP (Unique selling proposition):
  5.4.4.3. Making strong visual imagery:
  5.4.4.4. Memorable and integrated advertising:
  5.4.4.5. Care towards loyal customers:
  5.4.4.6. Dealing with women customers:
5.4.5. Baluchari Industry should go to AIP (Apparel Industry Partnership):
5.4.6. Baluchari industry should pay attention to ‘human resource development’: the key to success:
5.4.7. Introduction of diversification:
5.4.8. Introduction of heritage tourism in and around Bishnupur:

Chapter VI
PROBLEMS IN THE BALUCHARI INDUSTRY
6.1. INTRODUCTION:
6.2. SWOT (strength-weakness-opportunity-threat) ANALYSIS ON HANDLOOM OF INDIA IN BRIEF:
  6.2.1. Inner strength of handloom industry:
  6.2.2. Main areas of weakness of handloom industry:

xiii
6.2.3. Opportunities for handloom industry:

6.2.4. Problems or threats, which Indian handloom products are facing today:

6.3. VICIOUS CYCLE OF BUSINESS OPERATION IN BALUCHARI INDUSTRY:

6.3.1. Factors responsible for less demand of Baluchari in comparison to other substitute commodities in the domestic market:

6.3.1.1. Consumer behaviour:

6.3.1.2. Nature of competition in the market:

6.3.1.3. Other factors affecting consumer's preference pattern:

6.3.1.4. Reasons behind the opinion of the customers of lower income group (they think that Baluchari is too expensive to purchase):

6.3.1.5. Reasons behind the opinion of the customers of higher income group (they think that Baluchari is monotonous):

6.3.1.6. Reasons behind the poor demand of Baluchari in comparison to other substitute commodities in the international market:

6.3.2. Factors responsible for the escalating production cost of Baluchari:

6.3.2.1. High installation cost of loom:

6.3.2.2. Inadequate supply of the silk thread with high quality as well as reasonable price:

6.3.2.3. Problem in designing:

6.4. PROCESS AND PRODUCT INNOVATION:

6.5. LESS PROFIT IN BALUCHARI-BUSINESS:

6.5.1. Definition of profit:

6.5.2. Condition of a Baluchari farm in relation to profit:

6.6. REASONS BEHIND LOW RATE OF CAPITAL INVESTMENT IN BALUCHRI-BUSINESS:

6.6.1. Profit:

6.6.2. The rate of interest:

6.6.3. The marginal efficiency of capital:

6.6.4. Business expectations:

6.6.5. The cost and productivity of the capital goods:

6.6.6. Process and product innovation:

6.6.7. The level of income:

6.7. LESS ATTENTION IN INNOVATION:

6.7.1. Failure to adopt improved rationalized methods:

6.7.1.1. Lack of education and formal training:

6.7.1.2. Imprudence to modernization:

6.7.2. Failure to generate more entrepreneurs from the weaving section:

6.8. NEED OF PRODUCT DIVERSIFICATION IN BALUCHARI INDUSTRY:

6.9. PROBLEMS IN THE KHADI SECTOR:

6.9.1. Absence of training centre for Baluchari production:

6.9.2. Controversy on whether the production of Baluchari belongs to khadi or handloom:
6.9.3. Absence of proper management and leadership: 249
6.9.4. Comparatively low sale due to high price: 249
6.9.5. Comparatively low sale due to absence of modern marketing: 250
6.9.6. Comparatively low sale due to absence of Government obligation especially in West Bengal: 250
6.9.7. Allegation of corruption: 250
6.9.8. Supply of raw material: 250
6.9.9. New financing process by the KVIC: 251
6.9.10. Policy of giving rebate in khadi-products: 251
6.10. ROBLEMS IN COOPERATIVE SECTOR AND SELF-HELP GROUPS: 251
6.10.1. Cooperative Societies: 251
6.10.2. Self-help groups: 252
6.11. PROBLEMS OF THE WOMEN ARTISANS: 253

Chapter VII 259-279
MEASURES FOR REVIVAL OF BALUCHARI INDUSTRY 259
7.1. INTRODUCTION: 259
7.2. SOCIO-ECONOMIC CONDITION OF THE BALUCHARI WEAVERS: 259
7.2.1. Significance of the ownership of looms: 260
7.3. STEPS TO ACHIEVE THE REVIVAL OF BALUCHARI INDUSTRY: 261
7.3.1. First period of growth process in Baluchari economy: 261
7.3.1.1. To increase the price of Baluchari: 261
7.3.1.2. To decrease the production cost of Baluchari: 261
7.3.1.3. To increase the transitory income of the weavers: 266
7.3.1.4. To make own profit making Baluchari firm: 267
7.3.2. Application of the game theory: 270
7.3.3. Second period of growth process in Baluchari economy: 272
