ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This thesis would not have materialized without the guidance, support and encouragement of a large number of well wishers and I would like to acknowledge my gratitude to them.

First and foremost, I am grateful to my supervisor Dr. Ratnabali Chattopadhyay for providing valuable guidance and assistance at every stage of my work. I also take this opportunity to thank my teachers and friends at the University of Calcutta for their suggestions that added to the quality of my work. My friends and colleagues at Shri Shikshayatan College have always rendered the necessary assistance and I am really indebted to them.

I am highly thankful to Shri Tejendra Kumar Roy, the Honorary Secretary, Smt. Bhaswati Lahiri and Smt. Madhumita Chatterjee, the In-Charge of the Indian Society of Oriental Art, Kolkata, for granting me access to rare archival materials and for cooperating with me in every possible way.

I would also like to thank the staff of the National Library, Kolkata, the Centre for Studies in Social Sciences, Kolkata, the Ramakrishna Mission Institute of Culture, Kolkata, the Indian Museum, Kolkata, the Calcutta University Library and the Chitrakoot Art Gallery, Kolkata. Shri Manjit Paul has painstakingly typed my thesis and I thank him. I am also indebted to Sri Brojodeb Chatterjee of 'Pratirup'.

My family has been my source of strength. My parents have inspired me to carve out an identity for myself and today, I believe, they are the happiest. Chandan has helped me to complete my thesis, brightening up my rigorous schedule.

Last but not the least, a very special mention for Baba for whom no words of acknowledgement can suffice. To him I dedicate my work.

************