ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In the era of fast changing world, the present research topic is felt to be having highly contemporary significance as it unfolds the diversified history of development and change. My esteemed and beloved supervisor Dr. Tahir Asghar’s pragmatic vision and diachronic ideas acted as a catalyst for me to explore and investigate the manifold nature and feature of multiple changes about the two prominent economies in a comparative perspective. Because of his fountain of inspiration and intellectual acumen sheet the present work is able to accelerate a new dimension of transition economies. Though no word will be adequate to thank such a scholastic personality, I bow down before his high academic stature and will ever remain indebted to him.

My other teachers of the Centre like Prof. Shams-ud-din, Prof. Ajay Patnaik, Prof. S.K Jha, Dr. Gulshan Sachdeva, Dr. Banshidhar Pradhan and Dr. Phool Badan also deserve special regard as they have helped me on many occasions for the work.

The work further got into a new fold because of the inspiring encouragement of my friends like Sowesh, Umakant, Ram, Boyeeks, Bireesh, Bobby, Nirakar Bhai, Bibhu, Ramki and others. They all came forward and catered my deficiencies for the smooth completion of the present work.

A few more friends like Asish, Sailendra, Atanu, Gaya, Kharavela, Vish (gora), Bishi (kalia), Santosh, Alekha, Surya, Bikash & Mamuni, Milan & Urvashi, Prasant & Tuni, Ramesh & Sudipta, Bapi & Lily, Nira & Co., Shelly & Jasmine, DD & Co., Babulal & Sujata, Raju, Tulu, Sumant, Bijay, Biju, Dr. Chari and many others deserve to be appreciated as they extended their helps at different intervals of my research.

Some of my young friends like Kabi, Chitta, Sitanshu, Lulu, Danny, Dhira, Anup, Luna Das, Luls, Dips & Pups, Luns & Tins, Buls & Nins, Lupsy, Shalini, Prinitman, Babu and others stood beside me and infused the strength and courage for the completion of the work. I love them all.

My career-long and childhood association with Bibhuti many way facilitated the present work to be construed in a unique form. He and his eternal soul Rekha sprouted my internal dynamism and persuaded me to the extent for the completion of the thesis work. I thank the duo not merely in words but feel their genuine concern to the core of my heart.

My Bapa, Bou, Dei & Bhai have been profusely extending all their resources, love and affection from the beginning of my study. I owe special indebtedness to all of them. My younger brother Susant has been cheering me up every time along with my family members to furnish this pending task. I love him.

Salman and Tabir have taken immense interest to candidly type the manuscript of the thesis. I thank both of them. I am also equally benefited from the company of Hamad, Sanjeev, Shahid, Shiv and others. They all deserved to be appreciated and loved.

For the collection of the materials I have solely depended upon JNU Library, New Delhi, United Nations Library, IMF Library and World Bank Library. The staff member of these libraries have extended their co-operation. I thank them all.

The thesis has come to the light with a financial grant form the Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR) New Delhi.

My work will remain unjust and equivocal if I am not scrupulous to admit and accommodate the renaissance like world-view of my friend Vishy. Her prodigal upsurge of sociology of knowledge and dialectics of flamboyant-radical humanism besides reminiscence and unputdownable pragmatism elevated me to the corrected rational-legal path to accelerate the inter-subjectivity approach for the manifestation of the thesis. The genesis of the work taken momentum with her constant vivacity and veracity drive to remould my antique assumptions about the materialistic world and India’s unmodern modernity. With no words and under no compulsive situation I could repay all her invaluable configurated gifts as those accomplish me in my everyday life. I thank her for her abundant love, due care and concern and incessant inspiration till the complete shape of my work.

Finally in this work omission and commission, if any, are exclusively of mine.
