ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my sincere and deep gratitude to my teacher, Prof. Sibajiban Bhattacharyya, whose supervision provided me with all help to complete the work. My high esteem goes to all the teachers of the Department of Philosophy, Calcutta University for many important suggestions. I am extremely indebted to Prof. S.P. Banerjee, who, as the former Vice-Chancellor of Burdwan University, helped me to use the library of Burdwan University and who, as the Convener of the Ph.D. Committee, Department of Philosophy, Calcutta University, extended his help to pass the hurdles of Ph.D. Regulations to submit the paper. I am grateful to Prof. Sandhya Basu, Department of Philosophy, Rabindra Bharati University, for allowing me to take the help of some portion of one of her papers. I owe a special debt both to Prof. Susanta Sen, Head and Dr. Rita Gupta, Department of Philosophy, Visva Bharati University, whose wholehearted co-operation enabled me to enjoy the wealth of their departmental library. I am thankful to Mr. T. Moulik for carefully typing the thesis.

Finally, it is a pleasure for me to say that my parents and my husband have been a constant source of inspiration and confidence.

Calcutta,
August/1993

Manidipa Sanyal

( MANIDIPA SANYAL )