ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

There are host of dignitaries and officials who have helped during the process of conducting present investigation directly or indirectly. Although it is not possible to thank all of them who have extended their kind help and co-operation. I shall try my level best to mention the names of some of them whose impact was most felt.

At the onset, I must gratefully acknowledge the selected inhabitants who spontaneously extended their kind help for providing valuable data with special reference to “Dwellers' Safe-Space Perception Inventory”.

Over and above the concerned administrative officers' of the district as well as the police officers' who provided me the necessary crime data that not only structured the contents of my thesis but also gave me an opportunity to understand meticulously the ecological framework of the concerned district.

I am very thankful to my supervisor Dr. S.K. Dasgupta, Retired Professor, Department of Applied Psychology, University of Calcutta, whose help and guidance is immeasurable. I am totally indebted to him, for his valuable time and suggestions which helped me to complete the dissertation.

I am also very grateful to Late Dr. Sukumar Bose, for his valuable advice, which contributed a lot to crystallize the formulation of the outline plan of my present dissertation.

I would like to express my gratitude and sincere thanks to all the teachers of the Department of Applied Psychology, especially to Prof. Anjali Roy, Convenor of the Ph.D. Committee of Applied Psychology for their kind help and advice as and when needed.

Furthermore, I would like to thank my husband whose unstincted support, warm cooperation and never failing encouragement helped me to complete the present dissertation.

In fine, I must acknowledge the record of my thankfulness to Mr. Manas Bhattacharjee and Mr. Ramkrishna Halder for their kind help in the final processing of the present dissertation.

Department of Applied Psychology
University of Calcutta

Dated: 8.6.2011

POONAM SINHA