

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Before all I represent my sincerest gratitude to my respected research-guide Professor Sankarlal Chakrabarty, M.Sc., Ph.D., Chairman, Department of Microbiology, Bose Institute, Calcutta, for his constant and over-vigilant help, guidance and encouragement during the course of this research work entitled "Studies on L-asparaginase in Vibrio species." I convey my humble gratitude to him for his meticulous supervision, suggestions and expert advice. Here once again I confess that I would have been lost without the admirable help of him.

I am indebted to Prof. B.B. Biswas, M.Sc., Ph.D., F.N.A., F.A.Sc., Director, Bose Institute, Calcutta; and to Prof. S.C. Bhattacharya, M.Sc., D. Sc., former Director, Bose Institute, Calcutta, for providing facilities of the Institute accorded to me during the course of research investigation. I am gratefully acknowledge my indebtedness to Prof. Asoke C. Ghose, M.Sc., Ph.D., Ex-Chairman, Department of Microbiology; Prof. A.K. Mishra, M.Sc., Ph.D., Department of Microbiology, Ex-Deputy Director; Prof. D.P. Chakrabarty, M.Sc., Ph.D., D.Sc., Department of Chemistry, Ex-Deputy Director, and Dr. Sribir Sen, M.Sc., Ph.D., Ex-Senior Fellow-Student, Department of Microbiology, Bose Institute, Calcutta.

I submit my gratitude and ever-gratefulness to Dr. S.C. Pal, M.D., Dip. Bact. (Manchester), Director; Dr. Uma Ganguly, M.Sc., Ph.D., Assistant Director; and Dr. S.P. De, M.B.B.S., Ph.D., Deputy Director, National Institute of Cholera and Enteric Diseases, Calcutta; for constant encouragement and facilities rendered to me.

I also wish to acknowledge my debt to Dr. Samaresh Chaudhuri, M.Sc., Ph.D., Guest Lecturer; Dr. Swapna Chaudhuri, M.Sc., Ph.D., Senior Research Associate; Prof. Arun K. Ghosh, M.D., Ph.D., Head of the Department; and Mr. Amaresh Sinha, M.Sc., Ex-Research Scholar, of the Department of Biochemistry and Biophysics, University College of Medicine, University of Calcutta, for their inspiration, facilities and help to a part of this research work.

With reverence I express my deep gratitude to my aunt, cousin, sister-in-law, late paternal uncle and grandmother for their benediction, co-operations, patience and sacrifice inundated to me. It is also a pleasure to acknowledge the instant co-operation, encouragement and help of my wife Mrs. Nupur Dey (nee Banik).

My sincere thanks to Mr. Shyamal Kumar Das of the National Institute of Cholera and Enteric Diseases, Calcutta, for his skillful and excellent typing of this thesis.

I convey my thanks to the Librarian, Assistant Librarians, and the full staff of the Bose Institute Research Library, Calcutta, for their regular helps during library works.

It would be grateful of me to acknowledge with pleasure the constant co-operation I have had with my research laboratory professional colleagues, friends, and all staff of the Department of Microbiology, Bose Institute.

Grateful thanks are due to Mr. Sisir Ghosal, Mr. Debidas Saha, Mr. Biswanath De Sarker, Mr. Prabhat Chatterjee, Mr. Shew Prasad Ram, Mr. Nirmal Malakar, Mr. Dilip Bhattacharya, Mr. Baban Ram, Mr. Sudhin Chakraborty, Mr. Samir K. Paul, of Bose Institute, for providing active co-operations. Thanks are also due to Dr. Dilip Kumar Mukherjee, Scientist-in-Charge and Mr. Arup Sen, Regional Sophisticated Instrumentation Centre, Bose Institute, Calcutta, and Mr. Dilip C. Mondal, P.M. Type Chamber, Calcutta, for the facilities obtained.

The research scholarship grants availed from the Indian Council of Medical Research, New Delhi; the Bose Institute, Calcutta; the Council of Scientific and Industrial Research, New Delhi, during the entire period of this research investigation are highly acknowledged with many thanks.
