

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Foremostly, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my mentor and supervisor Prof. Anuradha Mukherjee, Department of International Relations, Jadavpur University, Kolkata, for her continuous support, enthusiasm and personal guidance from the very early stage of this research as well as giving me extraordinary experience throughout the work. I am deeply grateful to my supervisor Prof. Aparna Banerjee, Department of Philosophy, University of Calcutta, Kolkata, for her valuable guidance and her extensive discussion around my work and interesting explanation and crucial contribution have been very helpful for my thesis.

I am thankful to my friends those who are directly or indirectly inspired me to complete the thesis successfully. In addition to this I am thankful to my colleagues of the previous college and the present college to support me.

I also like to extend my thanks to staff of Jadavpur University library, extending their help during the work. I would like to thanks the library staffs of National Library and Ramkrishna Mission Library who helped me in gathering a lot of information for this project.

Where would I be without my family? My parents deserve special mention for their inseparable support. My father, Gopal Charan Mallik, in the first place is the person who put the foundation of my learning character, showing me the joy of intellectual pursuit ever since I was a child. I cannot express my gratitude to my mother, Ketaki Mallik, in words whose unconditional love has been my greatest strength. I thanks to my younger brothers and sisters for their support in the research. It is a pleasure to express my gratitude wholeheartedly to my father-in law, Suresh Chandra Mallik, and mother-in law, Kaushlya Mallik, for their inspiration and thoughtful support.

I owe my loving thanks to my wife Illa Mallik, who has taken the load off my shoulder and without her encouragement and understanding it would have been impossible for me to complete this research work and my son Chris Mallik whom I owe my deepest love. I could not give time to my son since five years for my research work for which my heart cries a lot. For that I thank my wife and my son from the depth of my heart.

Last but not the least: my greatest regard to the Almighty for bestowing upon me the courage to complete this project successfully.
