ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I take this cherished opportunity to thank Dr. Ram Asare Singh for his sincere concern, cooperative guidance and constant encouragement throughout the course of this study. No words suffice to express my deep sense of gratitude, respect and appreciation for his invaluable guidances, incessant encouragement, constructive criticism and discussion throughout the course of this work.

The support rendered by the Principal Dr. A.K. Singh and Head of Department of Chemistry Dr. Daroga Singh and his predecessors before him and friendly atmosphere created by rest of the faculty will always be treasured.

I would like to sincerely thank Dr. N.P. Singh for his sincere concern, cooperative guidance and constant encouragement throughout the course of this study. No words suffice to express my deep sense of gratitude, respect and appreciation for his invaluable guidance, incessant encouragement, constructive criticism and discussions throughout the course of this work.

I would like to thank Dr. Virendra Singh, Dr. Atul, who always took out time for me whenever I approach them for discussions.

I would like to sincerely thank Mr. Ashok Salmi for his sincere concern, cooperative guidance and constant encouragement throughout the course of this study. His affable nature and never-say-die attitude has been largely responsible for the successful completion of this work.

I would like to thank especially the help provided by Miss Ritu for typing.

The blessings of my parents, both uncleji, auntiji and encouragement and affection showered by my brothers, sisters, mamaji and mamiji are solely responsible for all that I could achieve. They will always be so dear to me.
