ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It's my proud privilege to express the deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor Prof. G.N. Vankhede, Head, P. G. Department of Zoology, Sant Gadge Baba Amravati University, Amravati for his constant encouragement, motivation and valuable guidance throughout the course of this investigation. I have been most fortunate in working under his supervision and without his backing and enormous help; this work would not have been possible.

I am also thankful to Hon'ble, Dr. S. N. Patil, Ex. Vice - chancellor, Sant Gadge Baba Amravati University, Amravati, for granting me Shri. M. N. Kale Research Scholarship, which was very useful to complete this work.

I express my sincere thanks to Prof. Dr. J. H. Sabnis for valuable suggestions and help that served milestone in conducting this research work.

I want to pay my sincere thanks to Hon'ble Shri. Nitin Kakodkar, Conservator of Forest and Field Director, Melghat Tiger Reserve and Hon'ble Shri. Ramanuj Choudhary, Ex Conservator of Forest and Field Director, Melghat Tiger Reserve, for granting me permission for collecting faecal samples of wild animals from the protected area. I also acknowledge the financial support given to me for part of the work of this thesis and the timely discussions.

I also thank Mr. Kishor Rithe of Nature Conservation Society, Amravati for his initial encouragement and also for going through the manuscript.

It is my privilege to express my thanks to Dr. S. S. Deshpande, Principal, Arts, Commerce and Science College, Amravati, for encouragement and Dr. S.R. Akarte, Reader in Zoology, Vidyabharati Mahavidyalaya, Amravati. My special thanks are to Dr. Shivaji Deshmukh for his cooperation.

The above work would not have been successfully completed without the devoted help of all my research colleagues and my friends especially Mr. Jayant Wadatkar, Dr. K.B.Sangwe, Dr. G.A. Wagh, Mr. G. B. Kale, Mr. C.M. Bharambe, Mr. M. P. Chikhale, Mr. A. K. Bodkhe, Mr. P. Y. Anasane, Mr. Sameer Vankhede, Mr. Dnyaneshwar Vankhede, Mr. Dutta Wabale, Mr. Vinod Kale, Mr. Gautam Shirsat, Mrs. M. Bhamburkar, Ms. R. R. Laharia, Ms. S. A. Singhai and Ms. D. B. Kadu and my friends Ms. Kavita and Mr. Prakash Tomar.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not thank the librarians of Wild life Institute of India, Dehradun who managed prompt service and made available the Journals on Wild life.

With due respect and regard, I feel pleasure in expressing my deepest gratitude to my relatives for their inspiration, affection and blessings. I owe my existence and whatever I achieved to my dear parents {Aai and Anna}, {Baba and Aai} and brother Mr. Subhash and Sau. Nalu wahi, Mr. Tushar and Mr. Chetan Shirbhate, whose blessings and encouragement have made me to attain the highest ideas in all spheres of my life.

I would like to thank, Mr. Somesh Zambre and Mr. Sachin Girnale for a neat presentation of my thesis.
