CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

PREFACE

Chapter One
Introduction

| The ‘folk’, the ‘lore’ and Cognitive categories | 6 |
| Worldview in Folksongs | 17 |
| Implications of the feminine domain | 22 |
| Acoustic Effect and Anthropology of Death | 25 |
| To study Tradition and thereof Meanings | 28 |
| Mithila, Maithili and Worldview | 30 |
| Thesis: in a nutshell | 36 |

Chapter Two

Methodology of Being: Hermeneutics in the Field

| Some Questions | 40 |
| Context of Question | 41 |
| Proximity with Bachha of Changel | 42 |
| Intrigue for a Weberian | 53 |
| Hermeneutics: Philosophy and Method | 54 |
| Holistic Hermeneutics | 55 |
| Researcher in the Field and Methodology of Being | 70 |
| Becoming of Being | 76 |
| Denouement | 80 |

Chapter Three

Mithila, Maithili and Maithil: the Field in Historical Context

| Mithila: as it were | 81 |
| Post Vedic and Pre-Moghul Mithila | 82 |
| From Moghul to the Company | 86 |
| Socio-cultural and Religio-philosophical configuration | 90 |
| Philosophical posterity and perpetuity | 92 |
| Maithil Society: in a glance | 98 |
| Meaning of Being Maithil | 99 |
| Maithili: neither Junglee nor Bihari | 100 |
| Maithili Folklore | 104 |
| Conclusion | 109 |
Chapter Four
The Maithil Worldview in Songs: A perspective on life and death

- Fulhara: In a Bird Eye's view
- Calendar of festivity in Fulhara and Songs
- Festivity in Rite of Passage and Songs
- Songs of Season
- Songs of Everyday life
- Songs sans Occasions
- Interpretative Analysis:
  - Orbiting in the Worldview
  - Social system of Invocation
  - Soteriological Seekings

Chapter Five
Art of Dying in the Maithil Folk Philosophy

- Ubiquity of Metaphors of Death
- Dharma/Karma/Moksha, and Beyond
- For Emotional Truthfulness
- Everydayness of Dying
- Conclusion

Chapter Six
Conclusion/s: Theses in the Thesis

- Sub-theses in the Thesis
- Folk tradition: neither Little nor Great
- Beyond Tradition and Modernity

APPENDICES

BIBLIOGRAPHY