ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

There have been many ups and downs while I was doing research for the present thesis. Many people helped me, encouraged and spirited me up whenever I felt I was losing out. It is difficult to acknowledge all of them for their help, however, some deserve special mention.

I owe a great debt to Mridula Mukherjee under whose supervision I worked. It was entirely due to her encouragements that I undertook this study. She has not only guided me with patience and kindness, but also gave me freedom to pursue my own ideas. That in spite of her constant and valuable criticisms and suggestions, many errors may still have crept in is entirely due to my own imperfections.

I have no words to thank Aditya Mukherjee for his constant support and help, especially during the final stages of this thesis. I am also grateful to Prof. Bipan Chandra for his encouragements and valuable suggestions. I am indebted to the faculty of the Centre for Historical Studies, JNU, who for the last six years have shaped many of my ideas, visions and thinking which went into making of this thesis. To my teachers at Allahabad University, especially V.C. Pandey, Gyanendra Pandey and Sushil Srivastava. I owe a sense of gratitude for giving me my first lessons in history.

I am thankful to Rakesh Batabyal and Bhupendra Yadav for raising critical questions and giving useful suggestions. I also gained a lot in casual conversations and discussions with Digvijai, Imran, Ranjan, Sanjay, Gopal, Alok, Ajay, Ashok, Raj Kishore, Sunil, Srikanth and CK.

In Lucknow and Kanpour, Didi, Moonmoon and Gyan gave me all possible help, in addition to providing me comforts of home. Elsewhere, Minni, Deepu, Neetu and Jiya did everything to make my research a pleasure (and occasionally an irrelevance). While Baby and Bhaiya were always there to keep my spirits up, it was my parents who not only endured and sustained me but were also my source of inspiration.
I am thankful to the staff of the Nehru Memorial Museum and Library (New Delhi), UP State Archives (Lucknow), UP State Regional Archives (Allahabad), the Kashi Nagri Pracharini Sabha (Varanasi), and University Libraries of JNU, BHU, Allahabad and Lucknow.

I am grateful to the University Grants Commission for the award of Research Fellowship which supported my studies and me for five years.

And, finally a word of thanks to Shudh Swaroop who met my urgent typing demands whenever I made them.

The responsibility for any error is mine.

(GAUTAM PANDEY)