CONTENTS

PROLOGUE: pp.i-xxvii

CHAPTER I
ORGANIZATION OF SERVICES IN THE PRE-MAURYAN PERIOD: pp. 1-81

Sources: Name of the science of polity: Nature and origin of the State: Central Administration - King; Sabha; Samiti; Vidatha; Gana; Ministry; Ratnins; Parishad; Central Secretariat and Departments: Provincial, District and Village Administration; Republics: Concluding Remarks.

CHAPTER II
ORGANIZATION OF SERVICES IN THE MAURYAN PERIOD: pp. 82-189

Sources: Origin of State: Concept of State: Factors influencing the organization of services: Central Administration - King; Central Assembly; Ministry; Central Secretariat and Departments: Provincial Administration; Divisional Administration: Village Administration; Town Administration: An Assessment.
CHAPTER III

ORGANIZATION OF SERVICES IN THE POST-MAURYAN PERIOD: pp. 190-268

Mauryan downfall - its administrative causes: Political scenario in the Post-Mauryan period: Sources: Novel features introduced by foreign royal houses: Factors peculiar to the Post-Mauryan period: Manusmriti - its influence on monarchical administration: Central Administration - King; Ministry - Importance of Ministry, Qualificational requisites for ministers, Functioning of the Mantripayishad; Central Secretariat and Departments: Provincial, Divisional and District Administration: Village Administration: Town Administration: Judicial Administration, Composition of the King's Court, Judicial Procedure, Popular courts: Revenue and Taxation: Military Administration: Republics: An Appraisal.
CHAPTER IV
ORGANIZATION OF SECRETARIAT SERVICES: pp.269-363

Pre-Mauryan period - Ministry; Secretariat and Departments - Department of Ecclesiastical Affairs, Department of Defence, Department of Espionage, Department of Foreign Affairs, Department of Finance, Department of Justice, Palace Department; Mauryan Period - Ministry; Secretariat and Departments - Palace Department, Armed Forces Department, Foreign Office, Treasury and Revenue, Ecclesiastical Department, Department of Espionage, Judiciary, Department of Municipal Affairs: Post-Mauryan period; Ministry; Secretariat and Departments: Office Establishment.

CHAPTER V
TAXATION AND REVENUE: pp.364-395

Importance and necessity of sound finances: Historical survey of taxation over the ages: Principles of taxation: Principles of exemption and remission of taxes: Areas and rates of taxation.
CHAPTER VI

SALARY AND EMOLUMENTS: pp.396-404

Appendix pp.405-407

CONCLUSION

I. Political ideas responsible for shaping political institutions and organization of services pp.408-412

II. An appraisal of the organization of administrative services pp.413-427

III. Epilogue pp.428-436

BIBLIOGRAPHY pp.437-446