ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In the long and arduous journey of the completion of this thesis, I am overwhelmed by the generosity and support received from my family, friends and teachers. It is my pleasure to thank all of them.

I owe gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Mondira Dutta, who right from the inception of the topic of the research helped me in developing ideas and offered her intellectual generosity at every stage. I must admit that I tested her patience to the extreme limits, but she was untiring in her critical and constructive comments including the language, the style of writing and presentation, which tremendously improved the final outcome of the thesis. I can never thank you enough Ma’m. Your constant guidance and caring attitude elevates you to the level that transcends much beyond that of a supervisor. I am fortunate to have worked under you.

I would like to thank Prof. Ganganath Jha, Chairperson, CSCSEASWIFS for his support. I also take the opportunity to thank Prof. K. Warikoo, for his guidance and support. His knowledge and depth of understanding of Central Asia was of immense help in shaping my ground as a researcher.

I am grateful to Prof. Ajay Kumar Patnaik, Dr. Anbrish Dhaka, Dr. Sharad Kumar Soni, Dr. Nawal Kishore Paswan, Dr Sanjay Pandey and Dr. Phool Badan for being helpful at many occasions, especially with regard to my field visit to Uzbekistan.

It gives me greatest pleasure in acknowledging Dr. Mahesh Ranjan Debata, who has always been the source of constant support and source of inspiration. I thank him for being always available at the time of need, and especially during my field work.

I extend my sincere thanks to the Indian Embassy in Uzbekistan, and its officers who extended their timely support and assistance in arranging and providing all kinds of facilities during my visit there. I specially thank Mr. K.D. Dewal, IFS for his unconditional support and help. Despite his busy schedule, he was always at his best in fixing up my meetings with various concerned personnel. I am also grateful to Mr. Bhargav Mitra for his kind support and guidance during my stay in Uzbekistan.

I would like to thank University of World Economy and Diplomacy (UWED) in Tashkent for providing me suitable hostel accommodation in Uzbekistan. I am highly grateful to Dr. E. Sultanova, who was nominated by University of World Economy and Diplomacy as my scientific advisor for her valuable guidance, information and support. My sincere thanks to Dr. Alisher Abidjanov, National University of Tashkent, whose timely help made my field visit to Uzbekistan easy and smooth. It is not possible to name all individuals who were of great help to me in Uzbekistan. I would like to thank all of them for their support, help and warm welcome to Uzbekistan.

I would be failing if I do not acknowledge Dr. Arun Kumar Mohanty and Mrs. Namita Mohanty who have been a great source of inspiration and support to me throughout. Their moral support, care and love cannot be summed up in words.

My sincere thanks to the staff and officials of Jawaharlal Nehru University Central Library, New Delhi, Sapru House Library, New Delhi, Nehru Memorial Library, New Delhi, Central Secretariat Library, New Delhi and IDSA Library, New Delhi who were always helpful in the completion of this thesis. I am also grateful to the office staff of our centre, Asha Ji, Usha Ji and Dhir Singh for their best wishes and kind ways in their own way.

This work would not have acquired its present shape without the unconditional support from my friends who stood by me. I would like to thank Pravin, Shahid, Rashi, Vinita, Sukhpreet, Sailaja, Sangeeta, Shelly, Cherry, Bui Di, Manoj Bhaina, Mary, Angira, Gati, Devendra, Saurabh, Pramod, Sravane, Swati, Elly, Nidhi, Nazgul, Zainura, Suman and Ameswar for their encouragement and help.

Last but not the least, I am extremely grateful to my Daddy, Maa, my brother Babu, my sister Munia and my other family members who stood by me throughout this process. Words are not enough to express my gratitude towards them.

There may be others whom I missed out, but let me assure that it is inadvertent and I seek their forgiveness. In spite of the help, guidance and best wishes of the best of the people, I might have faltered at some places for which I am alone responsible.

Lopamudra Panda

Lopamudra Panda